Document begins with an assessment of the general situation, pointing out the great victories scored by North and South Vietnam against the US in the military and political fields. Document then directs subordinate units and agencies to step up all types of activities during the Tet season with a view to accomplishing assigned missions and properly implementing assigned plans of activity, which will result in great victories, thus contributing to a joyful celebration of Tet and the promotion of determination to fight and accomplish the 1967-1968 Winter-Spring missions. With regard to specific tasks to be performed during the Tet season, document instructs subordinate units and agencies to accomplish the following: 1. Armed activities: Before and after Tet, all types of troops should conduct "mighty and resounding" attacks to wear down the enemy /FVMAF/ RVNAF/ and destroy much of his potential. The Tet truce order of the Front /NFLSVN/ should be strictly adhered to, but vigilance should also be heightened and all personnel must be prepared to take retaliatory measures against any violations of the Tet Truce by the enemy. 2. Political activities: Before, during and after Tet, positive efforts should be made to step up the fullblown political struggle movement to motivate a large number of the populace for political struggles. 	Subordinate units and agencies are further ordered to spend Tet with the inhabitants of the areas where they are presently operating. Document ends with a statement that Tet is an opportunity for us /VC/ to "attack" the enemy, but the enemy also takes advantage of this opportunity to "attack" us by conducting his psywar and spying activities which may result in the demoralization of our /VC/ cadre and men. It is therefore, imperative that our /VC/ cadre, men, Party members and the populace heighten their vigilance and promote their determination to fight the enemy/. The footnote on the last page indicates that a copy of the Directive was sent to each "B" and "A" /subordinate to E 5/. The handwritten annotation on upper left hand corner of front page indicates that document was a file copy of 61/301 /Command Committee of E5/. (C) Item# 2.
