INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

Spot Report on the Situation in Hue N
(Information as of 9:30 PM EST)

1. The friendly position in this city has apparently deteriorated seriously during 31 January.

2. According to [redacted] who made a flight over the area late on the afternoon of 31 January, and received information relayed from US military officials in Hue, the city appears to be largely under the control of the Communists.

3. During his flight, [redacted] reported that a major market place on the north side of the Song Huong river in flames, with other smaller fires burning on the south side of the river. A fire fight was in progress along the river road on the south side. Ground fire was also coming up from the vicinity of the air strip inside the citadel area.

4. [redacted] was able to raise several local elements by radio and was told that a provincial reconnaissance headquarters outside the city had been overrun, and that many VC were present throughout the area. [redacted] was unable to make contact with the MACV headquarters, or the CORDE headquarters. He observed an ARVN battalion approaching Hue from the northwest, firing artillery to clear the way.
