

INFORMATION

Pres file

Saturday, February 17, 1968 -- 10:45 a.m.

Mr. President:

In response to your instruction, we have two jobs in hand:

-- Bill Jorden is working quietly with Amb. Bui Diem on a speech on the "Missions of U.S. critics" of our Vietnam policy. He will have an audience of 1500 in the Shoreham.

-- Marshall Wright is working on a major speech for the Senate.

W. W. Rostow

WWRostow:rla

