

KK

December 5, 1967
Teusday, 7:30 p.m.

Mr. President:

Ollie Quayle came by today and assured me that this meeting, and any meeting in the White House, and his job, if any, with the White House, will always remain off the record and confidential. He said he only wants to help the President.

Quayle says he has enough business for himself. He believes the President is going to win in 1968. He looks forward to working with us if we so decide.

Marvin

Krein, Arthur

COPY

Lyndon Baines Johnson Library