THE BRONZE STAR MEDAL

is presented to

FIRST LIEUTENANT ALFRED E. CLARK, JR.

United States Army

For distinguishing himself by meritorious service in connection with military operations against a hostile force during the period June 1969 to June 1970 while serving as Assistant Senior Advisor, Mobile Advisory Team IV-51, Gia Rai District and later as Assistant Regional Forces/Popular Forces Advisor, Bac Lieu Province, Republic of Vietnam. As Assistant Senior Advisor, Lieutenant CLARK was responsible for seeing that the units received adequate training in all phases of offensive and defensive military tactics. His work carried from classroom lectures to actual combat, and he continued to advise his counterparts on the phases which required improvements. As the Assistant Regional Forces/Popular Forces Advisor, Lieutenant CLARK worked closely with the Vietnamese to assist them in improving the status of the Regional and Popular Forces both tactically and logistically. Lieutenant CLARK was instrumental in the improvement of the fighting ability of these forces. First Lieutenant CLARK's performance of duty was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Army and reflects great credit upon himself and the military service.
