I got this info from the VHPA. If anyone in the 188th organization can shed more light, I would very much appreciate it.

I'm putting a display box together for the VHPA Florida LZ museum and will include it.

Thanks - Rick Brooks

Chi, from May 1967-Apr 68. I have not joined the VHPA yet, but I recently read Section IV - KIA/MIA page 169 of the Directory and would like to offer an update to the information of a good friend of mine. Major Boyd E. Morrow, died as a result of injuries received when his UH-1H crashed at Dau Tang, north of Cu Chi, near the Rubber Plantation, while he was test flying it to check it out after engine repair. He and a engine repairman, using an engine analyser, were taking off before first light in the early morning when the engine failed at a low altitude and crashed. Boyd was evacuated to the hospital at Cu Chi and died from internal injuries. He had changed from his normal duty day to the the night shift in order to let his assistant maintenance officer transition to his duties because Boyd was preparing for his R&R in Hawaii in a week to meet his wife. Boyd and I were roommates in 1961-62 in the 6th Transportation Co (Lt Hel) at K-6 (Camp Humphery's) South Korea. Let me know if you have any questions. Art Conroy, Colonel US Army Retired

I worked on the helicopter with Jimmie Green. Jimmie did not want to fly in it with Maj. Morrow. He told Gilmore the tech inspector to tell Mr. McFarland it was ready for test flight. My understanding was that Maj. Morrow was restricted to daylight flying only. Jimmie would not tell him he wouldn't fly with him, and it cost him his life. At that time he was the best friend I had. I was there when it was worked on, when it was inspected, and when they took off. Maj. Morrow looked at Jimmie and said get your helmet and that was that. Off course I never saw the accident report, but we heard he flew it into the ground. Someone higher up knows exactly.

Mrs. Jeanne F. Morrow

Dear Mrs. Morrow,

Regulations require that in the event of death of a military member, a Summary Court be appointed to secure and insure delivery of the personal effects of the deceased, to those entitled to take custody. I have been selected for this assignment with respect to MAJ Boyd E. Morrow, O4 035 432.

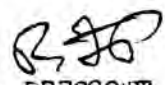

The currency your husband had, has been converted to U. S. Treasury Check Number 102,876 dated 27 October 1967 in the amount of $8.61, and is enclosed.

As provided by Federal law, in accordance with Title 10 USC 4712, I forwarded the personal property on 9 November 1967 by Registered Air Mail, Receipt Numbers 127422, 127423, and 127424. They should arrive on or about 17 November 1967.

Regulations require that you be informed that delivery of this Treasury Check and these effects in itself does not necessarily vest title in you, and that they should be retained or disposed of in accordance with the laws of the state in which MAJ Morrow was legally domiciled.

Should this shipment not arrive intact, please inform me at the address shown above.

Respectfully,

RONALD F. PRESCOTT

CREWE, VIRGINIA

This concerns your husband, MAJ Boyd E. Morrow. The Army will return your loved one to a port in the United States by first available military airlift. At the port remains will be placed in a metal casket and delivered (accompanied by a military escort) by most expeditious means to any funeral director designated by the next of kin or to any national cemetery in which there is available grave space. You will be advised by the United States port concerning the movement and arrival time at destination.

Forms on which to claim authorized interment allowance will accompany remains. This allowance may not exceed $75 if consignment is made directly to the superintendent of a national cemetery. When consignment is made to a funeral director prior to interment in a national cemetery, the maximum allowance is $150; if burial takes place in a civilian cemetery, the maximum allowance is $300.

Request next of kin advise by collect telegram addressed: Disposition Branch, Memorial Division, Department of the Army WUX MB, Washington, D. C., name and address of funeral director or name of national cemetery selected.

If additional information concerning return of remains is desired you may include your inquiry in the reply to this message. Please do not set date of funeral until port authorities notify you date and scheduled time of arrival destination.
