

will be
ed, is com-
on Page L.

del

of Amer-
world strug-
-ism, Budo Union "tolly of the
to stifle
ents and
for the un-

ient

$6,400

England
man has unds ($36,-
the Man-
ital Board
left her

id.
said the
in connec-
varicose
unidenti-

highest paid in from the r

street

H L
82 70
87 75
84 75
88 77
91 78
H L
79 67
48 47
58 49
83 74

FOR SALE

5 MINUTE 5

★ ★ ★ EDITION

Vol. 23, No. 273

Sunday, Oct. 1, 1967

B52 Makes 'Instant Fort'

Soldiers of the 25th Inf. Div. take shelter in the huge crater caused by a bomb dropped from a B52. The troops were battling snipers in the Ho Bo Woods, about 25 miles northwest of Saigon. (AP Radiophoto)

Liz Looks Like Million

PARIS (UPI)—Elizabeth Taylor dazzled the crowds Thursday

English to Replace Latin In Catholic Canon Prayer

will not turn him from his course.

In a major summary and defense of his position in Vietnam, Johnson claimed military progress for the Allied cause, cited leaders of Asian nations as backing the U.S. stand in the conflict, and appealed anew for peace talks.

But his conclusion bore down hard on what he termed Hanoi's mistakes about the nature of domestic debate over the war.

The President's speech was prepared for the U.S. (Continued on Back Page, Col. 1)

Name Hyland

SAN ANTO (AP) — President announced Friday picked Vice Adm. Hyland to replace Adm. Roy as commander of the Pacific Fleet. Hyland, now commander of the 7th Fleet in the Far East, will be named promotion to full admiral. Johnson retires Dec.

Photos on P

To succeed Hyland as commander of the 7th Fleet, the 1st selected Rear Adm. Ringle, now a deputy staff officer to the Pacific commander, and will be promoted to vice admiral.

Johnson also announced intention to nominate ambassadors to Jordan and Syria.

For the Jordanian post, he has chosen Harrisson, a 45-year-old naval officer, to succeed Burns Jr., who was assigned to the post.

As envoy to Moscow, he will nominate Hugh Downs, 54, who has been ambassador to Syria since October.

Executive Wife Shot By Prov

MORRISTOWN, N.J. — The wife of a prominent man, Bruce H. P., was stabbed to death Friday by a tall, dark intruder in the bedroom of her home near here.

Police warned neighbors to keep their doors while the unknown man was killing Mrs. Doris P., 57, and threatening