Army Orders Add Social Security No.

WASHINGTON (S&S) — Starting Jan. 1 all Army orders must include a soldier's social security account number as an integral part of the standard name line just like the time-honored Army service number, the Army has announced in a cable to major commands.

The change is part of the automated pay system and stems from the fact that the Army is running out of service numbers.

Here are examples of what the new name line will look like on orders in a few months: Sherwood, Clinton Y. OF110110 (SSAN [redacted]); Monday, Melvin P., RA 14888789 (SSAN [redacted]); Angela, Karen J. WR8536977 (SSAN [redacted]).

At the same time the Army said orders already published or issued with an effective date on or after Jan. 1 need not be amended to comply with the Oct. 10 cable.
