

In Search of ALL Members of the 187th Assault Helicopter Company

(Republic of VietNam, 1967-1972)

Come celebrate Veteran's Day 2000 with those gallant young (well, they were then) warriors which whom you served your nation three decades ago!

Crusader Frank Drinkwine (Class of '70-'71) has graciously offered to host a reunion of the 187th Assault Helicopter Company at his ranch in Wesley Chapel, Florida. The reunion will take place on Saturday, November 11th, 2000.

While planning is in the early stages, there will be food, drink, and best of all, camaraderie! Come see if you can recognize the folks you flew with, worked with, and dodged Charlie's rockets and mortars with. (Hint - some guys will have changed hardly at all while otherswell.....)

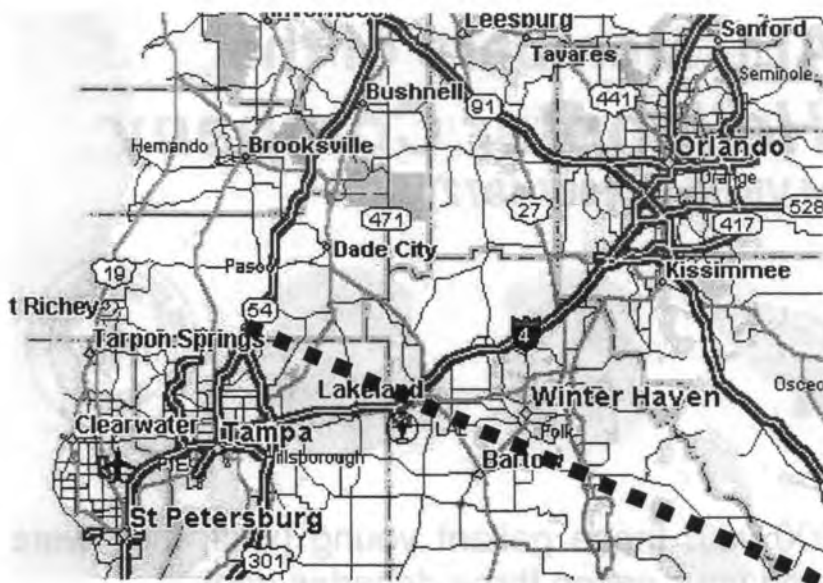

Florida in November in a glorious place and the area abounds with things to see and do. Bring the "6" and your kids – this will be a family activity. If you fly in, access is easy via Tampa International Airport.

There are numerous motels in the area. A block of rooms at a special rate has been set aside at the Wesley Chapel Holiday Inn Express (813-907-1379). Also available (but no special rates have been established at) are Sleep Inn (813-973-1665) and Comfort Inn (813-991-4600).

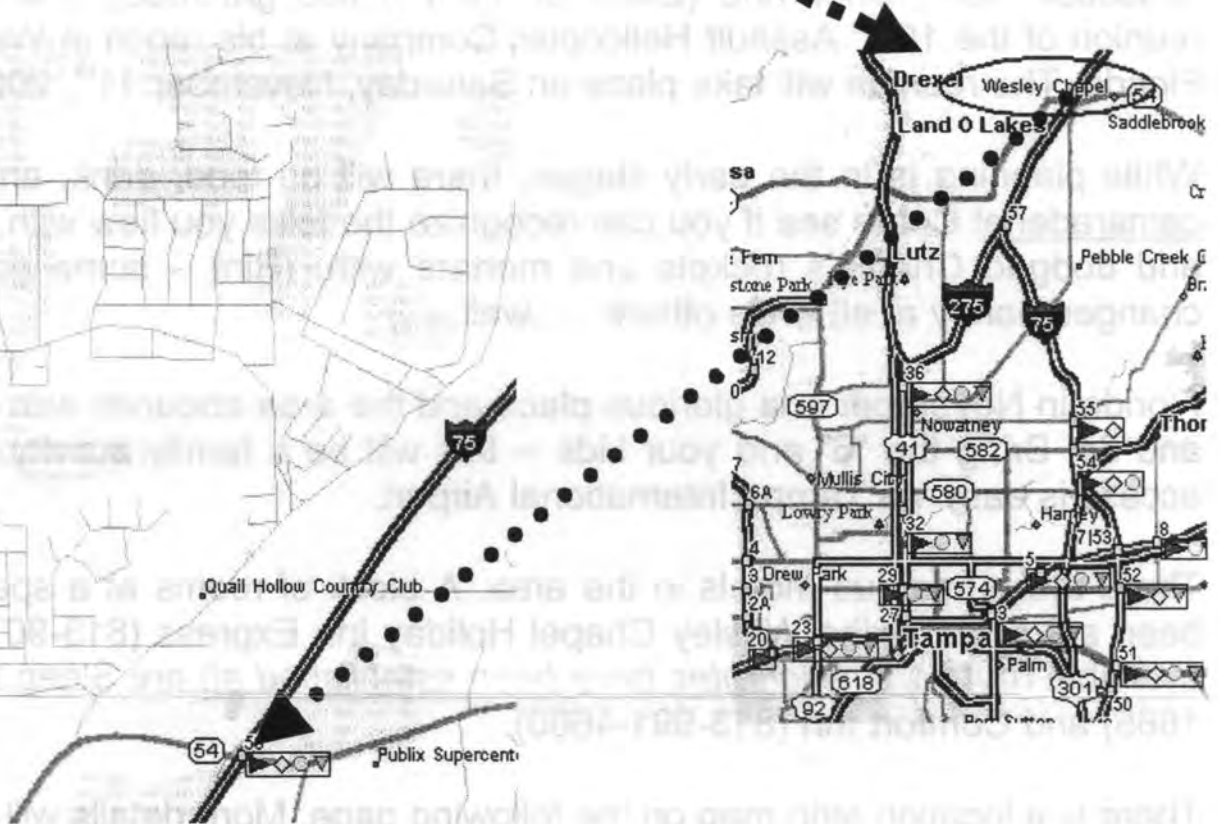

There is a location strip map on the following page. More details will follow, but please make your plans now. Please pass this information along to any 187th members who we might not have a mailing address for. If you are Internet literate, surf on over to:
