Vietnam Veterans Memorial 10th Anniversary

Activities planned for this 10th anniversary year of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial will culminate on Veterans Day, Nov. 11, 1992, 10 years from when the memorial was dedicated.

The names of all 58,183 Vietnam veterans engraved on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial will be read by volunteers beginning Sunday, November 8, and will continue 24 hours a day. Honor guards at the Wall will change every 30 minutes during the reading of the names.

In addition to these events, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund is planning nationwide activities that will include educational seminars, veteran reunions, religious services and concerts featuring the music of the 1960s and 1970s.

A Father's Day program sponsored by Sons and Daughters In-Touch is scheduled for Sunday, June 21. The program will be the first national gathering of the children of those who lost their lives or remain missing as a result of the war.
