Dear Mr. Dietra:

We are happy to grant permission for you to use the excerpts you have specified in your fax of April 19 from our publication The Red Earth: A Vietnamese Memoir of Life on a Colonial Rubber Plantation translated by John Spragens and edited by David G. Marr (Ohio University Press/Swallow Press, Athens, Ohio, 1984) in the history of your unit's experience which you are compiling for your unit. We will not require a fee for this use but we do ask that you give proper credit to the author and Ohio University Press/Swallow Press as publisher.

Best wishes on the success of your project.

Sincerely,

Judy Wilson
