Dear Mr. Detra:

Thank you for your letter regarding unit awards approved for the 188th Assault Helicopter Company during the Vietnam Conflict.

Research of the records maintained by this office revealed that during the Vietnam Conflict, the 188th Assault Helicopter Company received an award of the Meritorious Unit Commendation for meritorious achievement performed during the period of January 1, 1967 to December 31, 1967. An excerpt copy of Department of the Army General Orders Number 48, dated September 13, 1968, reflecting the units achievements is enclosed.

The primary function of this office is to serve as the proponent for the Army's Award and Decorations Program, and to support the active duty force. To obtain additional information on the unit with which you served in Vietnam, contact the Center for Military History.

I trust this information will prove helpful.

Sincerely,

Daniel B. Gibson
