

War is a conflict of sweat, tears, blood, tension and heart-break. It is the dirtiest business I have ever had the misfortune to be involved in. We served and we sacrificed. Much was asked and much was given. Some of us lost our youth and many lost their lives defending a country and people we knew little about. For some the taste is bitter, for many the memories are severe. But in our hearts we remember, no matter the pain, the brothers we fought beside, the comrades we depended on in our daily lives. Ours was a friendship shared in life and unbroken by death. Those of us who survived still share a union that others who have never been to war, can only dream about. Our memories are "olive drab" with "bomb bursting" sunsets and slowly graying visions of Vietnam's distant shores. We celebrate over the years by living, through our jobs, marriages, children, and reunions. We honor our dead and each other by never forgetting.

This story is dedicated to the courageous defenders of Democracy listed below who gave the ultimate sacrifice for our country and our way of life and for their survivors who have had to carry on with silent suffering without their loved ones. It is also dedicated to the brave and heroic warriors who survived the long and deadly days of combat, knowing that their next step may be their last. Some carry visible scars, some carry psychological ones, but all were affected in some way by the strains and hardships of being in combat.

The last line under the names of our fallen comrades who served in Company C, 3rd Bn., 22nd Infantry indicates where they can be located on the "Vietnam Veterans Memorial" in Washington D.C. Brothers, we were with you then and we are with you now!
