

HISTORY OF ALPHA COMPANY

The 158 Aviation Battalion (Assault Helicopter) was activated at Fort Carson, CO on 25 July 1968. The "Challenge" battalion was trained for combat and deployed to the Republic of Vietnam in February 1969. Company A and the battalion participated in several historic campaigns to include Lam Son 719, 729 and 810. The company also took part in the helicopter assaults on the Au Shau valley which lead up to the famous battle of "Hamburger Hill". The company was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation (10 May -21 May 1968), and two Valorous Unit Awards (17 July 1969-7 May 1970) and 22 July -23 July 1970) for action in Vietnam.

On 13 April 1978, in a history making ceremony, A Company, 158th Avn. Bn. became one of the first two Army assault helicopter companies to be equipped with the UH-60 Blackhawk. On 16 October 1987, the 158th Avn. Bn. was reorganized and redesignated as 5th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment. In July 1989, A Company was taken out of the 5th Bn., along with its current sister company (B Co.) from the 4th Bn., and placed under the operational control of the 6th Bn. Finally, on 19 December 1989, the 6th Bn. was redesignated as the 9th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment--the third UH-60 equipped assault helicopter battalion of the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault).

During the ensuing years the Black Widows continued their outstanding service with dedicated support to operation including Snow Eagle '81 (Fort Drum, NY), Bright Star '83 (Egypt), JTF-B/TF Southern Eagle (Honduras), Solid Shield '89 (Camp Lejeune, NC), Desert Shield and Desert Storm (Saudi Arabia), Buccaneer 7 (Jamaica), Task Force Wildcat (Kentucky), Ocean Venture '92 (Puerto Rico), Operation Restore Hope (Somalia), Operation Restore/Uphold Democracy (Haiti), and several rotation to the Joint Readiness Training Center (Fort Chaffee, AR, and Fort Polk, LA) and the National Training Center (Fort Irwin, CA).

Through it all the Black Widows of Alpha Company have continued to uphold the highest standards of the United States Army. The continue to stand ready for their next "Rendezvous with Destiny".
