Great Chef's of Vietnam IWCV 2004 Gala Awards Dinner To benefit the children - victims of Agent Orange

IWCV 2004 awards viewing reception start at 6pm with a tasting of award winning Champagnes, Proseccos and sparkling wines complimented by canapés from Vietnam's finest restaurants.

This year's not to be missed IWCV 2004 Gala Dinner will feature eight Great Chef's of Vietnam cooking a course each to be matched with an award winning wine from eight different wine regions. There will be the IWCV 2004 Trophy presentation, followed by a charity auction by Robert Joseph of special and rare bottles, art of Fam Luc and donations, a fashion show by Elite Vietnam's glamorous models of top Vietnamese Fashion Designers: Orient House and Pearl Ha, topped off by a moving Jazz concert by Vietnam's premier Jazz artists Minh and his son Dac.

Proceeds from the auction and ticket price go to benefit the National Fund for Vietnamese Children aid projects for the Agent Orange children victims and their families requiring all our attention and assistance.

It is estimated that there are one-million Agent Orange victims in Vietnam, and sadly this horrific damage is likely to continue. The victims are destitute and require our urgent assistance for medical treatment & equipment, prevention, rehabilitation, education, and job training. You will not be able to enjoy a better meal than the one everyone helps in helping others in need. Thank you to all Chefs, sponsors, restaurants, wine suppliers, and judges as well as everyone contributing and supporting this dinner, your selfless help and contributions will dramatically improve and save many lives for years to come.
