Speaker Profiles

Phan Van Khai was elected by the 11th Legislature of the National Assembly to serve his second term as Prime Minister of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam in 2002. The First Session of the 10th Legislature of the National Assembly elected him to his first term as Prime Minister in September 1997.

Born in Ho Chi Minh City in 1933, Prime Minister Khai participated in the Anti-French Resistance in South Vietnam from 1947 to 1954, before relocating to North Vietnam to focus on rural affairs and land reform until 1960. From 1960 until 1965, Prime Minister Khai studied at the National Economics University in Moscow, and returned to Vietnam in 1965 to serve the State Planning Commission. After working briefly as an economist in South Vietnam, Prime Minister Khai was appointed Deputy Director of the Planning Department of the Government Reunification Commission in 1974. From 1976 to 1978, he served as Vice Chairman of the Planning Commission of Ho Chi Minh City. He became a permanent member of the Party Central Committee in 1979, becoming Chairman of the Ho Chi Minh City Planning Commission and Vice-Chairman of the People's Committee of Ho Chi Minh City. From 1981 to 1984, Prime Minister Khai served as First Vice-Chairman of the Ho Chi Minh City People's Committee and as Deputy Secretary of the Party Central Committee. He was promoted to Chairman of the Ho Chi Minh City People's Committee in 1985. Prime Minister Khai was appointed Chairman of the State Planning Committee in 1989. He was appointed to Permanent Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers in 1991 and Permanent Deputy Prime Minister the following year. He remained in that post until he was elected Prime Minister in 1997.

Ronald J. Anderson is Senior Vice President of American International Group, Inc., and Chairman of A.I.G. Companies, Japan and Korea. With extensive international insurance experience and involvement in Asia, Mr. Anderson joined American International Underwriters (A.I.U.) in 1983 as Vice President and General Manager for Southeast Asia based in Hong Kong. A.I.U. is the international arm of A.I.G.'s non-life operations. In 1985, Mr. Anderson was appointed President, Asia-Pacific Divisions, of A.I.U., based in New York. In this role, his responsibilities covered Japan, Korea, Southeast Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. In 1992, Mr. Anderson became A.I.U.'s Senior Vice President for External Affairs. In 1994, Mr. Anderson was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of A.I.G. Companies in Japan and Korea, based in Tokyo. In 1995, he was elected Senior Vice President of A.I.G. and named Chairman and CEO of A.I.G. Companies in Japan and Korea. In 2001, Mr. Anderson was succeeded as CEO and continues as Chairman. He currently serves as Chairman of the Foreign Non-life Insurance Association of Japan, and is an International Council member of the Asia Society. He serves on the boards of other Asia-focused organizations as well.

Mr. John (Jack) S. Wadsworth, Jr. is the Honorary Chairman of Morgan Stanley Asia and an Advisory Director of Morgan Stanley. Mr. Wadsworth joined Morgan Stanley as a Managing Director in 1978. He moved to Japan in 1987 as President of Morgan Stanley Japan. In 1992, Mr. Wadsworth moved to Hong Kong as Chairman of Morgan Stanley Asia, Chairman of Morgan Stanley India Securities Limited and Chairman of Morgan Stanley Asia (Taiwan) Limited. In 2001, he moved from Hong Kong to San Francisco. Mr. Wadsworth is Vice Chairman of the Asia Society's Board of Trustees, the Vice Chairman of the Pacific Basin Economic Council (PBEC) United States Member Committee, the Treasurer and Chairman of the Finance Committee and Director of PBEC International, a Trustee of Williams College, and a Board member of the Guggenheim Museum of New York. Mr. Wadsworth also serves as an Advisory Board member of Softbank Asia Infrastructure Fund, and is a member of the Advisory Board Committee of Walden International. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Pixar Animation Studios and is a General Partner of Manitou Ventures.

Andrew V. White is Vice President of Corporate Affairs for Philip Morris Asia Pacific. He joined Philip Morris U.S.A. in 1989, moving in 1990 to Philip Morris International (PMI) in Lausanne. He was appointed Director Corporate Affairs of Philip Morris Russia in 1995, and Vice President Corporate Affairs, Eastern Europe Region in 1998. In 2001, Mr. White was appointed to lead PMI's newly established Brand Integrity Department based in Lausanne, working with law enforcement, governments and international bodies around the world to disrupt, reduce and eliminate the international counterfeit trade in PMI brands. In 2002, he relocated to Hong Kong with responsibility for region-wide corporate affairs strategy and programs in communications, public affairs and government regulation and relations in markets in China, Japan, Australia, Korea, Hong Kong, Indonesia and the Philippines. He is responsible for ensuring Philip Morris Asia Pacific is aligned with and responsive to evolving expectations of governments and other key stakeholders of a responsible tobacco company in support of PMI's business objectives in the region.

Marcus Wright is the Senior Editor for Dow Jones Newswires in Asia-Pacific, in charge of the newswire's editorial operations in this region. Mr. Wright has worked for Dow Jones Newswires since 1987, and has held a variety of reporting and editing positions in London, Bahrain, New York and Singapore. He has worked in Asia since 1996, and took up his present position in early 2000. Mr. Wright was educated at U.K.'s Marlborough College and at Oxford University.

Ryuichiro Yamazaki is Japan's Ambassador for International Trade and Economy, the Chief Negotiator for the WTO negotiations, and Chief Negotiator for the Free Trade Agreement negotiations with Mexico. Ambassador Yamazaki joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1967. Earlier in his career he was responsible for areas such as North American political and security affairs, the GATT Uruguay Round and OECD issues. His ambassadorial postings have included Washington, D.C. and Beijing, and he was Minister and Consul-General in London and Deputy Permanent Representative to the UN. In Tokyo during the 1990's, he was seconded to the Office of External Affairs of the Prime Minister's Office at the time of the Gulf war crisis, was Deputy Director-General of the Foreign Policy Bureau handling Security Council and PKO issues, and seconded to the Japan Defense Agency as its Director-General for International Affairs. He was spokesman for MOFA as well as Prime Minister Mori's international press spokesman during his eight overseas visits. From 2001 to 2002, he was Ambassador to Vietnam and was awarded the Friendship Medal by the Vietnamese Government upon his departure.
