DAN,

How does it?

I'm Fine, couldn't be better.
OF course I wouldn't take that to the V.A. and tell them -

Just was awarded 50% PTSD, up from 30%. Hope you can use the information I sent you -

I was down at my Mom's house near Los Angeles - the letter you sent in July went to her house which was my old address

I'm up here in Willow Creek, CA, have been since last year, please note the Willow Creek address, thank you. I just don't want to mess any more.

Sorry to hear about Tom Cunningham Me and T.C. were tight. He was my ATL and T.L. all the time in Mom - I got a hold of him before the Recession in '92 told him I had 8mm Film I had transferred to VCR format, and that he was in the tape all through it.
I'm now planning on calling Lois and give her the tape - Bernner -

OVER -

Glad to hear about the TAB its "NICE", its the work to get it "OFFICIAL" thats Appreciative. Any time A Veteran "works" to Achieve higher STATUS for himself and others is what it all about - I'll try working harder myself.

I'm just now feeling better (mentally) maybe its the PTSD increase and the ritu check. But man, I went through some changes this past Winter and Spring Had a true Nervous breakdown.
But, ---- Like I always say,

"IT Builds CHARACTER"

But I've been building "CHARACTER"
For 25 years since the 'NAM' -

Time to enjoy Life -

THANKS FOR YOUR HELP!
Keeping informed is needed, at least for me it is.

Well, time to Go.

Take Care fellow Rangers -
