Steven,

Thank you for the donation, it will really help, and thank you very much for the issues of Tactical Knives. Its an absolutely excellent magazine. I have never had the opportunity to be exposed to it before, although I've really enjoyed your contribution to Behind the Lines. Now that I am, I'm in trouble. Now I know where I can spend all the money I don't have!

It just so happens that knives have been an obsession of mine since I can remember. I've been in a lot of situations before and since Nam, where a knife was the most important thing I had. I'm a collector of sorts, but my collection is for my use, and I don't have anything I don't use except for a Commemorative, 20th Anniversary, Gerber Mark II, like the one I carried in the field in Nam.

I notice from one of your articles that you and I share the same tastes. I had carried a Puma Game Warden ever since I returned from Nam, but alas, they finally got too rich for my blood. It was replaced with a No. 23 370, which I like fine, but its not quite the quality of the old Game Warden.

I sure hope you have the opportunity to get to the reunion (Maybe you should join Behind the Lines and have plenty of time to play, like Gary!), but if not, there will be another time.

Again, thanks. You'll be hearing from me again soon.

Sincerely,
