

Dandridge "Mike" Malone was the original founding commander of Company E (Long Range Patrol), 20th Infantry (Airborne).

The letters contained here are some of the last he ever wrote. He died shortly after his last letter to me.

He was one of the finest men I ever new and one hell of an officer and gentleman.

Daniel Pope
August 1, 2002