

05-19-96

From: Daniel Pope

01:04 PM

Date: Sunday, 19-May-96 01:04 PM

From: Daniel Pope                    \ Internet:        (toc@internetmci.com)
To: Lazarov                         \ Internet:        (lazel@pop3.pcix.com)

Subject: Fwd: Abbott

----- FORWARD, Original message follows -----

> Date: Monday, 06-May-96 12:02 PM
>
> From: Daniel Pope                    \ Internet:        (toc@internetmci.com)
> To: Lazarov                         \ Internet:        (lazel@pop3.pcix.com)
>
> Subject: Abbott
>
> Laz,
> Why don't you concentrate on this guy for now, he probably won't be hard to > confirm if we can get a first name. What we have is:
>
> Abbott, no 1st name, E-4 or E-5
> KIA according to Ralph Resch (remember the salt here) between Jan & Apr ' 68.
> Killed outside Bong Son while E/20th was opconned to 173rd.
>
> There are two wall listings for Abbott in early ' 68 as follows:
>
> Edward Donald Abbott
> From: Yuba City, CA
> KIA 5-6-68
> Rank: PFC
>
> Robert Esten Abbott Jr.
> From: Pine Lawn, MO
> KIA 5-8-68
> Rank: PFC
>
> Don't put too much weight on the rank because of memories and the fact that > most times guys were automatically promoted. Call Ralph Resch and see if you > can find anyone else who might have known this guy. If anyone can provide a > first name we can probably confirm with what we have, there are only two > choices.
> I'll advise my results on Everly & Strohmier.
>
> Dan'l

----- FORWARD, End of original message -----

Laz,

I talked to Ralph Resch about Abbott last weekend. He gave me Posner as being Abbott's team leader. Last known address on Posner was the Ft. Lauderdale area. I called information and there are 38 Posners in that area but none are Harry

05-19-96

From: Daniel Pope

01:04 PM

Posner. Don't know where to go with this unless we can get a first name from some other early E 20th guy.

Dan'l