

Buddist Delegate

ref: Your January 21

There is a delegate for the Buddhist group here in Haiphong. He has only just begun to work, has little to show for his efforts yet, will not discuss what he plans to do, but is very pleasant.

My evaluation of him so far is that he may do something, but he is a long way from it now. He is the former Mayor of Hanoi, Mr. Mui I believe the correct spelling is, and his interest is in all the problem, not only Buddhists. He has sixteen men, posing as religious followers who are getting ready to circulate around.

Marge Franklin will give you more insight on this, as for me, my fingers are ready to drop off. I will make frequent contacts with Mr. Mui, and have already promised him any assistance possible.
