late on the afternoon of the 3rd of Oct, 1972 the contingent of Australians from the 8th and 9th Bn of the Royal Australian Regiment 6th Royal Task Force arrived at Hickham Air Force Base Hawaii, for there participation in Exercise Pacific Bond. The composite platoon consisting of 39 enlisted men and one staff officer and one platoon commander. This platoon is part of an platoon exchange program, where by a platoon of the U.S. Inf from Schofield Barracks Hawaii, home of the 25th INF DIV were exchanged with a platoon from the Australian Inf Forces.

Deploying Major <sup>AN</sup> Powers, Australian Det. Leader for the Platoon exchange was greeted the Commanding General of the 25th INF DIV MG Robert MacKIMMON, 1st BDE COMMANDER COL RICHARD Zastrow, 1-27th Bn Commander LTC CRUICKSHANK and Alpha Company commander CPT Crittenden. As Major Power stepped off the plane he selected MG MacKIMMON and shook hands with the General. Where upon a girl from the Aloha welcoming committee placed a flower lei around the major's neck. In the background the 25th Inf Div band was playing traditional Australian melodies.

While Major Power was greeting the rest of the military leader from the 25th Inf Div the men were deploying and <sup>separating</sup> ~~separating~~ in a platoon formation for the playing of the National Anthems of Australia and the U.S. After the National Anthems were played the Aloha welcoming girls placed a lei around each soldiers neck and greeted each one with a kiss. As the band continued to play the men were marched to buses <sup>which</sup> that would transport them to Schofield Barracks.

This film was shot at arrival time, in the late afternoon as the sun was setting. Exposure was constantly changing depending on the sun's position in relationship with a bank of clouds. The last scenes taken were in twilight of the ~~evening~~ <sup>evening</sup>.

On the 6th of Oct, the Australian platoon was on M-16 rifle qualification. Stated scenes were used of CPL Oliver Christian (BILL) Parry as he went through the qualification record score on the range. This footage consists of establishing shots of the rifle range and one sequence of CPL Parry firing from the fox hole and in various firing positions as he he walks towards the targets. For this range pop up targets are used and pop up out of the grassy hiding places that could conceal an enemy troop. All footage of CPL Parry was shot under controlled conditions on tripod with one camera on shoulder pod.

7 Oct the Australian platoon was treated to a trip along the Northern shore line of Oahu Island, Hawaii in County. Included in this bus tour was Waimea Bay, the Polynesian Cultural Center and the Horman Temple. The bus tour was an all day affair commencing at 09:00 when the buses departed "A" 1st Bn 27th Inf, 1st BDE of the 25th INF DIV, at Schofield Barracks.

Minutes outside of Schofield Barracks the buses were driving through Sugar cane fields and famed Hawaiian Pineapple plantations. Along the windward shore the buses stopped to show the visiting Australians some of the beaches that abound in Hawaii. The next few minutes gave the men there first view of Hawaiian life with out the tunnel and glitter of tourist attractions. Life and ways of living were well represented along this route as was some of the natural terrain that makes up these volcanic islands.

Along the beaches the buses stopped momentarily for the men to get out and look around or take pictures of there visit to Hawaii. Usually these stops were for ten minutes or less. At no time could the men take a dip in the ocean at this particular time. At the Polynesian Cultural Center shots were gotten as the men entered the grounds. Then scenes were obtained as the men were at the kitchen area of the Samaan Village.

At the Polynesian Cultural Center the men visited six different villages that make up the major portion of the people from Polynesia. They are Fijian Samoa, Tahiti, Tonga, New Zealand and Hawaii. At 12:00 noon the men were seated by the lake for the pageant of the Long Canoes. In this ceremony canoes representing each village comes out and puts on a demonstration of native dancing from each village. The first village to be represented in the long canoe pageant is Samoa, followed by New Zealand, Tahiti, Fijian, Hawaii and finally Tonga.

At 14:30 the men departed the Polynesian Cultural Center for its sponsor the Hawaiian church of the latter day saints (Mormon Temple). There they were guided on an about a fifteen minute tour of the temple and received a bible different between the bible and the Book of Mormon.

Sunday the Australians were given a tour on the southeastern tip of Oahu. There first stop was at Hanalei Bay. Here as on Saturday they only stopped a few minutes. This was the first time the men had gotten to see scuba diving and snorkeling. The time involved with walking down to the beach forbids the Australians to descend the cliff. They were then driven to the Blow Hole.

Departing the Blow Hole they were taken to Sea Life Park. There they saw trained porpoises and whales jumping, during the show, now coming being training in the acts which they will later put on for the public and an aquarium containing many of the marine life seen in the waters around the reef and adjacent
