Source stated that Duc, due to his scavanging, was also knowledgeable concerning other crash sites (NFI). Source made an appeal for US assistance for Duc and Duc's family, and also for US assistance for Source's family members still in Vietnam, and also offered that if necessary, Source would be willing to go back to Vietnam with the US to assist in getting the remains which were recovered by Duc. Source never personally saw the remains, dog tag, or crash site.
