Dear Jim

The attached Press clearly shows that the White House is trying to do the right thing here.
(Attachment 1) You, however, refuse to go along (Attachment 2)

Jim, Don't listen to Traubridge, he's been misrepresenting the country since the war (Attachment 3)

Passport: Clinton is clearly trying to do the Right thing. Don't stand between him and the truth.
Cancel the hunt for remains and artifacts. Direct to Bangkok. I will take you to the exact locations in Vietnam where living U.S. Prisoners of war are currently held by the Vietnamese Government.

Sincerely
Bill Hanson

Dear Mr. Hendon:

I received your 5 March fax today. At this time, I have no plans to change my trip routing to meet you in Bangkok. I would, however, like to reiterate Ambassador Lambertson's request that you turn over any evidence you may have uncovered to my Office so that my analysts can immediately review it.

Sincerely,

James Wold
