10. DETAILS:

At approximately 010700H January 1969, while at the market in Phu Thuan (nfi), HE observed three Americans, captives of the NVA, being led through the market towards Loc Son Village. There were two Negroes and one Caucasian. HE stated that the Caucasian had his hands tied behind his back and was wearing camaflage trousers with a jungle type utility jacket. The two Negroes were neither tied nor bound; both wore jungle type utilities. All three Americans appeared sad. None of them were wounded. They were guarded by three NVA soldiers with AK-47 rifles.
