Dear Miss NAME

On 13 July 1987, we furnished you a copy of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) evaluation of Joint Casualty Resolution Center reports T87-025 and T87-025A, which were previously forwarded to you. As you are aware, DIA's findings did not agree with the JCRC analysis and correlation to your father, Lieutenant Colonel NAME

As a result of the DIA response, we queried the JCRC for further information and have attached a copy of their reply which explains the methods and information they used to associate the referenced reports to Colonel NAME. In their letter, JCRC advises that in view of the disparity between the analysis and findings of the DIA and JCRC, further investigation is warranted.

JCRC has instructed their liaison office in Bangkok, Thailand to try and obtain additional information concerning these incidents. During the refugee interviews, the questions you asked as a result of the referenced reports, will be addressed. We will apprise you of any further information we receive in this regard. In the interim, if we can be of further assistance, please call Mr George Atkinson or Captain Dale Pangman, at 800-531-5501 (toll free).

Sincerely,

JOSEPH S. NEMEPH, Colonel, USAF
Chief, Casualty Matters
