Source stated that sometime during late 1971 while practicing volleyball at the ready made clothing factory (Xi Nghiep May Mac), located at the 12 kilometer marker on Highway #18 east of Hon Gay Town, Quang Ninh Province, she heard about the crash of a U.S. aircraft. Source heard the story from fellow workers at the clothing factory who resided in the area of the crash.

Three days after the crash Source and several other employees of the clothing factory decided to travel to the crashsite to look at the wreckage. Source stated that she recalled that the crashsite was located approx 300 meters south of Highway #18 near Thon Hanh Hamlet (YJ 2922). When Source arrived at the crashsite she observed several members of Naval Repair Plant #48 (Xuong 48 Hai Quan) who were searching through the wreckage located on a Karst formation.
