03-1270-66	To: Region Enemy Military Proselyting Section. This is to report to you that the slogans in American and Allied Forces languages have been studied and disseminated to various battalions and districts but the result was far from satisfactory because our men could not read them and there was no one with enough English capability to teach the men how to read. We have studied the slogans and read the instruction letter but it was to no avail. If we could not do it, how could our men? Accordingly, we request that further assistance be furnished from higher echelons so that we can put these slogans to good use. We have had some experiences with the recent Da Giang battle: the reason our men were unable to capture many Americans alive was because they could not appeal them to surrender in their own languages, so they shot and killed them all. As regards the military proselyting policy, we were unable to comment whether it was a success or failure in this battle, because we did not participate in it, orders of the military affairs committee. This also held true for the critique session. The only phase we could follow up is that of POW escort. Our men were good. As required by the Military Affairs Committee, I personally conducted the investigation, on the enemy situation. The job was well done. The most concrete evidence is that the kindness of our men have won over the confidence of the	Mar 66, "D" Zone, YT, by 173d Airborne Brigade.
