The document provides an assessment of the future situation of the enemy ((RVNAF)) after the withdrawal of the US troops, and states that the opportunity will arise to step up military proselyting activities.

To attack the enemy politically, subordinate cadre and Party members were to participate in a military proselyting front to popularize the ten points of the new military proselyting policy. ((RVNAF)) troop dependents were to be motivated to cooperate in political struggles and military actions. Every effort was to be made to disrupt the ((RVN)) People's Self-Defense Force organization. ((RVNAF)) regular and Regional Force elements should be incited to disobey orders and stage armed revolts. Recruitment of revolutionary agents was to be intensified in enemy units, and military proselyting machinery should be strengthened together with the intensification of propaganda activities.

To strengthen the military proselyting organization, the ((Binh Son)) District ((Party Committee)) was to activate a propaganda unit of three members, and each village was to activate one legal ((having RVN legal status)) propaganda cell and one megaphone cell. On 15 Apr ((72)), the classification of the ((RVNAF)) troops dependents into categories and the recruitment of military proselyting personnel should be completed.

By the end of May 72, the district was to recruit 7 to 9 military proselyting cadre and 18 legal ((military proselyting)) agents. Each village was to recruit three to five cadre, and each hamlet was to recruit five cadre. Sixty fifth columnists were to be planted in ((RVNAF)) Regional Force elements, and 100 fifth columnists were to be planted in ((RVNAF)) Popular Force elements.

To meet the military proselyting criteria, a meeting was to be held on an unstated date by the ((Binh Son)) District ((Party Committee)) to discuss
