J.C. Campbell;

I am enclosing my dues for the year 2000. I would very much like to attend the reunion in Denver but at this point I do not know. Flying from where I live in the tip of Texas, flying to Denver is like flying to Europe. I often think of the Evans because I spent 41 months on that "Bucket of Rust" so if you really want to know, this is where I grew up and I love every minute that I was aboard the Evans-three Captains and lots of fun J.C.

In your letter you spoke of the book "In The Wake". I have a smart wife, and she searched the inner net and ordered the book for me; It arrived today, so I will spend some time reading it J.C. Anyone can get a copy, via the internet, and the cost is about $20.00 delivered.

J.C. I was thinking, which should never happen, the greatest thing in the world would be to have a reunion of all of the sailors who served on the Evans from 1950 to 1955. We are the ones that put her back to sea and gave her a chance to fight in Korea and the bars all over the place. We could even have it in a central location, where it might not cost a arm and a leg to get there. (just wishing J.C.

Well enough of this nonsense J.C. If you ever get a chance, drop me a note.

My Best

Cato Christensen
