Dear JC,

After Jack Truckemiller
received the pictures I sent to you guys, he sent me the attached letter. Since you have a numbered set, thought you might like to have this response -

Best wishes,

Dear Jerry:

Good to hear from you. I would have sworn that you gave me an email address earlier but I have hunted everywhere and it can't be found.

Here is my best guess on the pictures.

- 1 No question on this one - Its YOU
- 2 (L-R) A. Peter Alyea, Lex Taylor, Milton Eisenberg, Carl Annexstad.
- 3 (L-R) A. Peter Alyea, Don Merriman, Milton Eisenberg, Jerry Fien
- 4 (Back L-R) Jack Druckemiller, Jerry Fien
(Front L-R) ? , ? , (QM's I think)
- 5 (Back L-R) CIC Personnel
(Front L-R) W. Mlagenovich, Jerry Fien, Clyde F. Fredericks
- 6 (L-R) W. Mlagenovich, ? , Fredericks, Jerry Fien, ? , ? .
- 7 Jerry Fien, ? , W.J. Hughes (XO), ? .
- 8 (Rear L-R) Harry Smith (CO), ? , William V. Platt (Gun Boss), Milton Eisenberg, Elmer W. Ozenberger (Front L-R) ? , ? , W. J. Hughes (XO), ? .

I do not see anyone in these pictures that I believe to be Julius S. Young.

Somewhere in my archives I think I have a complete list of all "C" division enlisted. It is amazing that I have forgotten so many names. I do have a copy of the Officers Roster that had to be sent in each month, and from it have a complete list of all the officers that were aboard during my time on the ship. Incidentally Gwen Ozenberger has attended many of the Evans Reunions. She seems to enjoy them and she thinks she has to make an appearance because Ozzie was a skipper for a short time when he was assigned to bring the ship back to the states. He almost ran us aground in Apra Harbor, Guam.

I have tried many times to locate Pete Alyea (he used to live in Indianapolis) and Lex Taylor (from Marion, Alabama) with no luck. Wrote to Jack Wassmer, the Supply Officer but he never answered and my letter did not return.

Hope this has been a help. My email address is jdruckemil@aol.com if you are ever online. Send me yours, if you have one.

Cordially,
