Mr. Jerome Fien

Dear Mr. Fien:

This letter is written in an attempt to locate a Jerome Fien who was a Naval Officer during WWII and was assigned as the Assistant Communications Officer of the USS Frank E. Evans (DD754), a destroyer which was commissioned in the New York area in 1945.

If by chance you happen to be that Jerry Fien, I would appreciate hearing from you by letter or a collect call to

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jack A. Druckemiller". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "J" and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
