This command started a general military subjects training program to improve the individual Marine's proficiency. The unit was divided into three (3) training sub-sections to prevent interrupting the daily operations of the company. The photographic section provided photo coverage of the following operations during March: DeSota, Early, and New Castle. The Battalion Supply section received the M-16 automatic rifles for issue to the CAC units in RVN. The disbursing section took control of about 8500 3rd Marine Division accounts and 4200 FLC accounts. During the month of March this section processed approximately 27000 pay accounts. The reproduction section processed a total of 338 jobs for a total of 707 units during the month of March.
