 - (d) Squads were not properly formed into fire teams.
 - (e) Approximately (6) armored vest unserviceable.
- (f) Average length of time since firing individual weapons included, troops who have never fired since arriving in country, up to periods of 9 months since last fired.
 - (5) Sorvice Company Platoon
 - (a) Approximately 10 dirty weapons.
- (b) squads were formed however troops were not aware of positions within fire teams.
 - (c) Some troops were missing first aid packets.
 - (d) Generally equipment was in serviceable condition.
- (e) Average length of time since last firing of individual weapons, approximately 4 months.
- 3. Action. Soveral problem areas encountered indicates a lack of interest on part of individuals and a less of command interest. Company Commanders will inspect those personnel in reaction plateons on a frequent basis to insure prior to next inspection weapons are clean and serviceable, the individual Harine is aware of his responsibilities within the Squad/Plateon and his individual equipment is serviceable. Plateon commanders of respective plateons will hold instructions on his plateon condusive to the individual Marine regular duties during periods that the unit is in a stand-by status as a reaction unit. Suggested subjects of instruction:
 - a. First aid/buddy aid
 - b. Fire discipline

- c. Fire and manuover (Fire team/Squad)
- d. Fire team/squad tactics
- e. Weapons inspection

Company Commanders of Provisional Rifle Companies will submit to Battalion S-3, training accomplished on a weekly basis.
