ENEMY WEATHER AND TERRAIN

1. Weather. The weather during the month of November was unseasonably mild with considerably less precipitation than normal. The average high temperature was 80 degrees and the average low was 70 degrees. The mean humidity was 88%. The average wind speed was 8.1 knots in a NE direction. The average visibility was 5.8 miles. The total rainfall for the month was 11.63 inches. (Monthly average for November is 29 inches).

2. Terrain. Trafficability on all routes of communication remained good. Cross country movement remained good except where restricted by flooded rice paddies.

3. Enemy. Enemy activity in the AO was limited almost exclusively to mining activity and small arms/sniper harassing fire. Operation OSCOLA continued with generally light enemy activity. During the period 11-12 November a Hoi Chanh guided, Regimental elements to three (3) rice caches located in the Hai Lang Forest area (YD 310421), YD 312419, and YD 309417). Total enemy material recovered was, 4-K44 CHICOM carbines, 4-410 AP mines. Enemy material destroyed was 17 tons of rice and 300 lbs of salt. On 19 November the same Hoi Chanh again guided USMC units to an area where a second rice cache was alleged to be located. The Hoi Chanh was unable to locate the rice cache but as a result of the day's activities there were one (1) NVA KIA (C), two (2) NVA KIA (P) and one (1) AK-47 captured. Documents found on the NVA KIA indicated the presence of the 808th MF Battalion (C) in the Hai Lang Forest area. Positive action was taken to reduce the amount of explosives available to the enemy in his mine warfare program. Extensive psyops were used to inform the local Vietnamese civil populace of the Reward Program. Considerable success was achieved in that a total of 359 items of munitions that could have been used as mines by the enemy were turned into USMC units by VN civilians compared with only 54 turned in during the month of October. A total of 58,410 dollars VN was paid as rewards during the reporting period. Many low level agent reports were received from the local sources indicating a NVA/VC attack on Quang Tri City, Quang Tri airfield complex, and the Marine installations located in the La Vang area (First Marines CP). Some credence can be attached to these reports since the apparent enemy attempt to mine the GA Bridge (YD 329519). The 121st RF Company found a floating mine 290 meters north of the bridge on 16 November. The mine consisted of bamboo raft rigged with 3-250 lb serial bombs with 2-PE charges of approximately 30 lbs each. The mine was rigged to be electrically command detonated.

3. See TAB A to Section B for an enumeration of incidents and enemy losses during the reporting period. There was a small increase in the total number of incidents during November compared with October (256 vice 241) but a marked decrease in the number of VC initiated incidents

OPERATIONS

1. Mission. Third Marine Division (-) (Rein) units in OSCEOLA AO conduct search and destroy missions in area west and south of QUANG TRI City and in Base Area 101; locates and destroys NVA/VC Forces; interdicts enemy lines of communication; denies enemy access into populated and food producing coastal areas; maintains and defends combat bases in AO; and supports GVN revolutionary development (RD) campaign plan.

2. Operations.

a. The First Marines continued to conduct Operation OSCEOLA during the period 1-30 November 1967, concentrating heavily on search and destroy operations, combat and reconnaissance patrols and small unit LP's/OP's and ambushes to accomplish its assigned mission within the Operating Area. First Marines conducted one Regimental size cordon and search operation in conjunction with the 1st ARVN Regiment, Provincial Reconnaissance Units and Armed Propaganda Teams; additionally, the First Marines conducted four Battalion sized search and destroy operations within the Operating Area. During the period 1-2 November, 2d Battalion, 1st Marines (-) (Rein) conducted a river crossing operation vicinity YD 275465, supported by ontos and otters, and conducted search and destroy operation vicinity Hill 80 (YD 247444) in accordance with my Frag Order 85-67.

b. On 4 November, the 1st Marines launched "Operation Mine Find". This program was conceived with the idea that Marines searching only for mines and not conducting concurrent operations to destroy enemy forces would discover more of these weapons and suffer less casualties in the process. Small areas of 1000 square meters are assigned to one rifle company reinforced with all the Regiment's available engineer mine detector teams (7-10 depending on other mine sweep requirements). The company establishes security positions around the "Sweep Area" to allow searching units to operate with full concentration on locating mines and devices without concern for enemy attack. To date, 16,000 square meters have been searched and cleared of mines. Some of these areas have been searched more than once, as the VC remine these areas. This is a continuing program and searches will be conducted as frequently as operations permit. Additionally, this program is bolstered by a dual incentive program, military and civilian.

(1) Marine. An incentive program has been established to grant any Marine discovering a mine or explosive device four days in-country R&R (including travel).

Thus far 9½ hours of broadcasts have been conducted and a total of 240,000 leaflets air dropped or distributed announcing rewards for delivering weapons and ordnance to US units. Since the beginning of this program, local citizens have turned in 207 explosive devices or ordnance capable of being utilized as mines ranging from 40mm and M-79 rounds to 155mm HE rounds. The cumulative total of this ordnance is as follows:

Emphasis was placed on preparation of counter-mortar and counter-rocket fire plans to provide a means of immediate response to such attacks. Counter-mortar drills were conducted at frequent intervals to exercise the spotting and reporting system and the firing units in counter-fire procedures. On 6 November at the First Marines CP, a conference was held to discuss fire support coordination measures and means of increasing the effectiveness of supporting arms. This meeting included all available command fire support personnel from platoon to regimental levels.

b. LOGISTICS

1. Logistics Situation. Logistic Support for the First Marines (-) (Rein) has been adequate for the support of combat operations.

2. Supply. The supply situation has been adequate for normal operations. Our source of supply is FLSU-1 at Dong Ha. The majority of our remaining supplies have been received from DaNang via rough rider convoy. The primary items still in the DaNang storage area are personal belongings. We intend to bring personal belongings forward as soon as a semi-permanent base area is assigned and suitable storage facilities become available. A shortage of rainsuits has been alleviated temporarily by the receipt of an additional quantity equivalent to ten per cent of initial issue, but their poor condition upon recovery indicates that this shortage will recur very quickly.

3. Maintenance. The maintenance of vehicles has been adequate. A lack of second echelon spare parts is becoming a problem, i.e. starters for M274, 9 are presently deadlined from 1st Battalion, 1st Marines, Generator Belts and Front Hub Assemble for M422, 9x20 Tire Tubes, Oil Filter Assembly, High Detergent Oil FSN 9150-231-6654 for M35A1 2 1/2 Ton trucks, Inner and Outer Wheel Seals for M43A2 wrecker. This echelon maintenance support from FLSU-1 has been adequate but due to lack of parts and a back log of work our vehicles and equipment remain deadlined for excessive periods.

4. Services.

a. Motor transport support has been adequate. Support from 9th Motor Transport Bn has decreased due to that organizations heavy commitments to support numerous units in Northern I Corps. Increased utilization of Co B, 1st MT Bn vehicles has been necessary to adequately support 1st Battalion, 1st Marines who were assigned to Con Thien on 20 November.

b. The water point and bath unit, at the Regimental CP is operating satisfactorily. A new water point and bath unit has been established at 2nd Battalion, 1st Marines CP. The unit services 2nd Battalion and other units located in their vicinity.

c. Materials to repair five (5) buildings at the Regimental CP have been received and planned rehabilitation of existing buildings has been completed.

1. The month of November was marked by the starting of four new civil affairs projects. On 23 November a corrective surgery program was initiated with the successful operation on a one year old boy with a harelip at the Quang Tri City Hospital. Pictures of the boy before and after the operation have been taken and a special poster is being printed depicting this boy's experience. This poster will be distributed throughout the AO in order to show other parents what their government will and can do for them. Two English classes have been taught by two of our officers; one in a Buddhist School (coordinates YD 337504) and one in a Quang Tri City High School (coordinates YD 341529). PSYCHOLOGICAL OPERATIONS

1. The month of November was marked by increased effectiveness of psychological warfare.
2. On 12 November an increased propaganda effort stressing the rewards program was initiated. The effectiveness of this campaign is evidenced in the vast quantity of munitions that the indigenous populace turned in to Marines in exchange for the rewards promised. Appendix A contains a break down of these munitions by number exchanged and price paid in piasters.
3. Air drops of leaflets are made simultaneously with aerial broadcasts in 1st Marines AO. There were 22 such airborne operations this reporting period. Hand dissemination was used to distribute approximately 400,000 leaflets. Ground broadcasts were limited to 8.5 hours, however, extensive use of this transmission mode is anticipated with the 1 December attachment of an HB broadcasting team from the 244th PsyOps Company.
4. The following themes were exploited during November.
 - a. Rewards for munitions
 - b. Chieu Hoi
 - c. NVA/VC bring destruction
 - d. Return to GVN
 - e. Do not harbor NVA/VC
 - f. Marines are friends
 - g. ARVN versus NVA/VC life.
 - h. Health and sanitation
 - i. Keep VC out of your village
 - j. Poor conditions of VC
 - k. Return to GVN
 - l. Villagers inform on VC
 - m. Keep VC out of your homes
