The patrol engaged the enemy and had one more grenade thrown at them before the VC moved. The security patrol returned to BIN LE. The following morning the area was searched and local civilians were questioned with the aid of an interpreter. The home was found where the VC had sought shelter. Both VC were wounded and 1 died during the night. The house had blood all over it and also revealed a map, note book, Paper Bag and cartridges. Bit with blood, and 1 US F406 Grenade. from Shore 140.

1845 Received report from Quang Nam
Spec Sect. that P.F. & R.F. forces vic BT 053600 were being shot at
by a UH1E

1850^{on TADP} following transmission received in F50C Rosemont E - we received some fire BT 051599 we made rocket runs and machine gun runs also its 100 meters off Highway -

1855 - unable to ctc A/C on DAO or TAD.1

- Pilsner 14 also unable to ctc

~~1845 - delayed - Deadlock 3-0 Shore Plate~~
~~at Marble Mtn.~~

1900 - Wing 63 contacted, no further info avail. are attempting ctc W/8402 to determine what A/C are airborne

1905 - Capt Reinhardt (Hoi An) called FSOC reported a PF platoon heard several shots, then a UH1E made a firing run on them. No casualties. Suspect VC fired at UH1E as PF had not fired.

1910 - Wing 6-3 called that Rosemont E acting as Convoy escort was called in by FAC W/convoy on strike because convoy was receiving ~~heavy~~ fire. This was 3 miles south of the river going to Hoi An 1932 - Wing 6-3 reports Rosemont E fired over the heads of PF force whose posit was marked W/green smoke to avoid any possibility of hitting friendly. Were most probably hit by expended cartridge cases A/C was ahead of north bound Convoy when ground fire was received

1945 - Capt Reinhardt. Army advisor at Hoi An apprised of above info. Stated no problem, no report to follow. 3/
