4. OPERATION SUMMARYGeneral

The Third Marine Division (-)(Rein) continued to conduct offensive operations during September. There were no enemy ground attacks against fixed installations during the month. There were 50 attack by fire incidents with a total of 480 mixed rocket and mortar rounds received on U.S. positions.

The 3d Marine Regiment operated below the central DMZ in Operation Idaho Canyon. Contact in the northern portion of the AO was frequent throughout the month, though enemy incidents were significantly reduced along Route #9. On 21 September, the 3d Marine Regiment began its stand down at QTCB in preparation for redeployment. With the Third Marines vacating the central portion of the Division AO it became necessary to reposition forces in preparation for redeployment of the remainder of the Division. Accordingly, the last named operations for the Division were terminated at the end of the month.

Initially, the 4th Marine Regiment continued operations in the Georgia Tar and Arlington Canyon AO located in the western and north-western sector of the Division TAOR. Enemy contact was light throughout the month. On 21 September, the 4th Marines assumed the Idaho Canyon AO from the Third Marines when they began stand down preparations. The boundaries of Idaho Canyon and Georgia Tar were contracted so the 4th Marine Regiment could continue to properly cover its assigned AO. In order to facilitate redeployment it became necessary to close the Fire Support Bases in the extreme western portion of the Division AO. FSB's Russell, Cates, and Shepherd were closed by the end of the month and the contracted AO was effected.

The 1st Brigade, 5th Infantry Division (Mech) remained in the eastern portion of the Division AO in Operation Iroquois Grove. Contacts with the enemy were sporadic. The operation officially terminated on 25 September but the Brigade remained in the same AO and continued its assigned mission of denying enemy access to the populated coastal region.

The 3d Reconnaissance Battalion operated throughout the entire 3d Marine Division TAOR, though primarily in two special reconnaissance AO's. The western Recon Zone was bordered by Laos on the west and the Georgia Tar, Arlington Canyon AO's on the east. The southern Recon Zone was defined by the Mai Loc TAOR on the west and the southern boundary of the Division AO.

Operation Iroquois Grove

The 1st Brigade, 5th Infantry Division (Mech), continued Operation Iroquois Grove in the eastern portion of the Division AO. The Brigade's mission was to prevent enemy forces from entering populated areas and, further, to deny the enemy food by destroying his rice-gathering force.

Friendly forces were deployed as follows: A/1/11, B/1/11 and D/1/11 operated from FSB Sharon (YD 3349) while C/1/11 operated in the vicinity of A-4. A/1/61 and B/1/61 conducted search and clear operations in the vicinity of C-2, while C/1/61 conducted search and destroy operations from FSB Sharon. A/1/77 operated from C-2, B/1/77 operated from FSB Nancy. Enemy contacts in the closing weeks of the Iroquois Grove Operation were characterized by brief, but sharp, small unit encounters. Typical of these was an ambush by Recon Tm 4 from 1st Bde, 5th Inf Div (Mech) on 102300H Sep, south-east of FSB Sharon. The Team initiated contact when the enemy entered their killing zone. A sweep through the contact area by the Team and a reaction platoon from C/1/77 found 5 NVA bodies and 4 individual weapons.

September casualties for Iroquois Grove were:

	USMC	USA		NVA	VC

Operation Idaho Canyon

The 3d Marine Regiment continued to operate south of the DMZ and along Route #9 during September. 1st Bn, 3d Marines operated along Route #9 in the vicinity of the Khe Gio Bridge (YD 0256), Elliot Combat Base (XD 9854) and FSB Fuller (YD 0159). Search and clear operations were conducted continuously to prevent infiltration into fixed installations and to minimize enemy attempts to interdict Route #9.

The 2d Bn, 3d Marines operated from Cam Lo, Hill 37 (FSB Dakota) (YD 088578) and C-3 Bridge (YD 1460) with the mission of securing these vital positions on the MSR and denying enemy access to the populated areas. F Co(-) operated on the north bank of the Cua Viet River, while one platoon provided security for Task Force Clearwater Headquarters at Cua Viet.

The 3d Bn, 3d Marines operated in the northwest portion of the Idaho Canyon AO. It was in this part of the TAOR that contact with the enemy was heaviest and most frequent. Action in this area is typified by the night engagement of Company "L", 3d Bn, 3d Marines on 19 September. The Company in its night defensive position began receiving a heavy volume of SAF and grenades at 0500. The enemy had closed, undetected, to within a few meters of the lines despite the use of trip flares and listening posts. Heavy return fire and quick response to requests for on-call illumination and night defensive fires broke the enemy assault. A counter attack by a platoon from the company position accounted for 3 NVA(C). There was 1 USMC KIA and 8 WIA(E).

During the month enemy attempts to interdict the East-West MSR (Route #9) were confined to sporadic mining incidents. The enemy was largely unsuccessful due to the increased night activity of units responsible for the security of fixed positions along the way. On 13 September, an OP at the Khe Gio Bridge observed 4 NVA through a starlight scope. As the enemy attempted to lay mines on the unpaved portion of the road, a 106mm recoilless rifle was ordered to commence firing "beehive". A check of the area under 81mm mortar illumination revealed 3 NVA KIA(C) and 6 anti-tank mines. From 13 to 20 September Companies K and L, 3d Bn, 3d Marines made contact daily with large enemy units in the vicinity of "Mutter's Ridge". At the conclusion of sweeps through the contact areas 55 NVA were confirmed killed. On the 21st of September, the 3d Marines began standdown preparations for redeployment by helilifting 3/3 units from the LZ Sierra hill complex to Quang Tri Combat Base.

The 4th Marines assumed the Idaho Canyon AO on 21 September. 2d Bn, 4th Marines operated in the vicinity of FSB Pete (XD 9758) and the Khe Gio Bridge. 3d Bn, 4th Marines operated from ECB, FSB Fuller and the Cam Lo Bridge (YD 1460).

September casualties for Idaho Canyon were:

Operation Georgia Tar in the southwestern portion of the Division AO. 1st Bn, 4th Marines operated in the vicinity of LZ Ram (XD 9249) and LZ Uranus (XD 8853). They also maintained an observation post on Hill 950 (XD 8445) to observe enemy movements on the Khe Sanh plateau.

The 3d Bn, 4th Marines provided security for FSB Cates (XD 9244), conducted search and clear operations in the vicinity of Vandegrift Combat Base (YD 0048) and maintained the Bald Eagle/Sparrow Hawk for the Division at VCB. Throughout the AO contact was sporadic and light. As the Division prepared for Phase II redeployment, continued operation of the western FSB's was unfeasible. FSB's Shepherd and Cates were therefore closed and the units repositioned to provide security for VCB.

6. INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY1. Enemy Activity

a. General. Statistically, enemy initiated activity within the Division AC increased slightly over the reported number of activities for last month with the most active area again being the Central DMZ. Analytically, there was a significant increase in enemy initiated tactical offensive operations with the primary area of tactical interest being situated in the Central DMZ area. There were six ground attacks conducted by enemy company or multi-company forces, eight attacks by fire, four ambushes, 80 harassment fires and 26 mining incidents reported during the month of September 1969. Of these, 70% of all the enemy initiated incidents occurred within the Central DMZ area. The enemy expended 591 rounds of mortars and rockets against 3d Marine Division units which was an increase of approximately 44% over last months enemy round expenditures. The enemy during the month of September has shown an increased willingness to conduct offensive tactical operations against U.S. troops. Subject activity, if attributed to instructions promulgated by COSVN in Resolution #9, would indicate that current enemy operations are designed to inflict maximum casualties on U.S. forces in order to accelerate troop withdrawals. The accelerated withdrawals could cause a vacuum before relieving forces are in a posture to assume responsibilities for security of the vacated area or areas.

j. The NVA campaign was supported with NVA oriented leaflet drops throughout Quang Tri Province. In addition, Rally and Surrender Appeals were dropped on NVA locations and infiltration routes.

k. The Quang Tri Armed Propaganda Teams were deployed throughout the 3d Marine Division (-) (Rein) FTF AO with the 4th CAG and 2d ARVN Regiment. The APT's were being used to conduct face-to-face propaganda, identify VC, gather intelligence information and security for Quang Tri City.

4. Pacification Effort

a. Overall Status of Pacification Effort. The standdown of the 3d Marine Division as execution of its redeployment began during the month has not adversely affected security in the populated areas of Quang Tri Province.

ARVN, the remaining US units, and the Territorial Forces have continued to provide a security climate favorable for pacification. The necessity for closer ARVN-RF/PF coordination became apparent again during the month, however, as an unfortunate accident in Gio Linh District which resulted in 7 dead and 19 wounded demonstrated.

The reaction of GVN officials and officers to the redeployment is one of concern rather than alarm, and concern probably focused more on the long range intentions of US leaders than on the immediate tactical changes. Typhoon Doris was another event during September that saw a mixed GVN reaction. The storm damaged over 10,000 houses and many public buildings. Through use of the Province Pacification and Development Council the immediate needs in terms of food, shelter, medicine, and public utilities were quickly met using GVN assets. However, despite the Province Chief's continued prodding, the repair of public buildings, especially schools, has stalled in a GVN bureaucratic morass. Money and materials are present to handle the repair problems as soon as the service chiefs respond.

The move of some 400 Vietnamese and 650 Bru Montagnards to the Gua Valley from the Ca Lu area in western Quang Tri was completed during the period 23-27 September. Thanks to superb support from the 1st ARVN Division, XXIV Corps and the 3d Marine Division units the people were able to make the thirty kilometer trip moving with them their worldly possessions - to include some 177 water buffalos.

b. Status of the RF/PF. Quang Tri Province has all authorized 29 RF companies and 124 of 148 PF platoons in Province. The remaining 24 PF platoons are presently in basic training at Lien Tienh. On 20 September the RF companies were organized into five Regional Company Groups to improve command and control and to increase the effectiveness of operations, intelligence, organization, training and logistics. There were 40 Vietnamese awards presented to RF/PF individuals. The MAT Teams have the same mission and are in the same locations as in August. MAT shortages are one officer, one Light Weapons Advisor and two Medical Advisors.

c. Future Problems and Projections. The departure of the 3d Marine Division places added responsibility on the civil government. As indicated in 4d, the record of Province officials in spending their budgets and responding to the VSDP has left much to be desired. The civic action contribution of the Division, including medical programs, school construction, road building and repair, and other functions normally satisfied by civil government, is coming to a rapid close. How well the civil government satisfies its responsibilities will be vital to the continued success of pacification and development. Unless the Province government shows more response to programs and direction from the central government, pacification may suffer.

SECRET

It is of great continuing concern in Quang Tri that, regardless of the terminology in vogue in 1970, this Province will have in Gio Linh and Cam Lo Districts some 30,000 people whose homes were originally in what is now the DMZ and the region just south of that area. These refugees, as they are now called, continue to live in sub-standard conditions and will require considerable and specific assistance if they are to maintain even their present marginal subsistence following the anticipated termination of the formal refugee program.

d. Develop Stronger Local Government. Village government appears to be improving faster than the Province government. Community interest generates projects but approval from the Province Pacification and Development Council for funds and material is often slow. The delay seems to have two causes: first, a shortage of trained clerks and administrators at every level; second, Province officials are attempting to maintain control of all programs. Having previously enjoyed control of every plaster and sheet of roofing, the P & D Council Secretary is reluctant to give up this power. Under this Secretary, who was formerly also the Secretary of the RD Council, the Province spent less than 70% of the RD Budget in 1968. Spending for 1969 has not improved to date. Recent GVN directions from Saigon indicate that the expenditure of VSDB funds is to be speeded before fiscal year-end curtailment. At present only 23% of the Province VSDB has actually been spent. GVN officials from Saigon and Danang have not taken the P & D Secretary to task for the poor performance that the slow budget expenditures indicate. One of the goals of 1969, the development of village government, is being realized - officials are being trained and are becoming familiar with the VSDP. While statistics on numbers of projects and percentage of budget spent do not represent the quality of village government, these figures do indicate the level of activity.
