b. Intelligence.

- 2 October - On Operation 344-65 an ambush position at AT88844 seriously wounded a V.C. male (later died of wounds). He was dressed in khaki uniform without unit markings. He carried assorted clothing but was without a weapon.
- 6 October - An informer from the village of Hoa Loo near Hamlet of Lo My reported two (2) Companies of V.C. harvesting rice fields in and around the village of Nam Yen (AT845858). Report was given him by a female grass cutter working near the village of Nam Yen.
- 9 October - A male rallier turned himself into Mr Lu, the Hamlet Chief of Lo My. Mr. Lu requested a Marine Corps ITT member to question the rallier to ensure he had changed his outlook. The rallier reported one Main Force Platoon and two (2) guerrilla Platoons within the Nam Yen area.
- 12 October - The Hoa Vang District Chief reported that he believes that during the monsoon a V.C. force of up to 3000 will begin attacks on Marine units within the Da Nang area. He did not, however, have any idea when these attacks would begin.
- 13 October - Mr. Hon, an informer who reports to "H" Company at AT895807 reported that a V.C. Company was located in grid square AT-8280 moving north toward Pho Nam to join two companies there. He did not know their mission.
- 18 October - 2d Platoon of Company "F" spotted two (2) men by a fence at AT918746 who fled toward the village at AT918744. Simultaneously, three (3) men at AT911749 opened fire with 15-19 rounds of automatic weapons fire. F-2 returned 150 rounds of small arms fire and one (1) round of 81MM mortar illumination.
- 19 October - An informer reported to the "G" Company "H" Company position at AT895801 that a V.C. force of 250 men were located in the hill mass above the village of Nam Yen. V.C. mission was to attack Marine outposts in strength.

UNCLASSIFIED

CONFIDENTIAL

30 October -- While moving into position, an ambush from "E" Company observed 5 V.C. and took them under fire (AT881825). The V.C. withdrew from the Marine fire and the Marine unit was unable to determine V.C. casualties. No Marine casualties were taken.

c. Communication-Electronics.

1-4 October -- Operated north of Ca De Song around Ti Tou (See enclosure (6)). Battalion operated exclusively on FM and experienced some difficulty from heavy vegetation in transmission. 3d Marines established a relay sight on Dong Don (AT837826) to improve reception on FM nets. An operation center was established at Fort Le My where an AM administrative net was maintained with the Battalion CP.

5-15 October -- Normal operations.

22 October -- Commenced Operation Red Snapper. Four (4) PRG-25 utilized with good effect.

30 October -- Mounted out Company "H" as Regimental reserve with a FAC Team and Radio Team and one (1) PRG-25.

d. Training.

(1) The training program was expanded within the Battalion during the month of October with emphasis on informational topics required by higher headquarters.

(2) On 7 October, Company "E" conducted training in marksmanship and ambush techniques for 30 Popular Forces personnel from the Hoa Loc Village. Training involved lecture, demonstration and application with live ammunition in the demonstration and application phases. The training was considered highly successful with full cooperation and participation by the Popular Forces. Training was facilitated by the use of Vietnamese Army interpreters.

(3) 11-14 October -- During this period a special team of instructors from 1st Battalion, 1st Marines held training for COMM mortar sections within this Battalion. During October a total of 251 rounds of HE ammunition were fired by the newly organized COMM mortar sections.

e. Close Combat.

1-4 October -- Operation 344-65. Elements of Company "J" (-) (Rein) and Company "H" (-) (Rein) with one (1) platoon of Company "G" conducted a search and destroy operation in the Truong Dinh (AT8683), Hoa Loc (AT8883) and Ti Tou (AT8986) area to destroy enemy forces located therein. The operation netted one (1) V.C. killed vicinity (AT8888/4) and a V.C. Base Camp located vicinity (AT888854) in which eleven (11) packs containing clothing and supplies were discovered.

- 7 October -- Hotel Company relieved "G" Company on the MLR. Golf Company becomes reserve unit.
- 8-14 October -- Golf Company (-) (Rein) moved to 1st Battalion, 1st Marines area to assist in defense of "D" Company defensive positions while that unit conducted operations forward of the MLR.
- 18 October -- 2d Platoon of Company "F" spotted two (2) men by a fence at (AT918746) who fled toward the village at (AT918744) when spotted. Simultaneously three (3) men at (AT911749) opened fire with 15-19 rounds of auto-matic weapons fire. F-2 returned 150 rounds of small arms fire and one (1) round of 81MM mortar illumination. Unit was unable to determine results.
- 22-25 October -- Operation 346-65, 2d Battalion, 3d Marines (-) (Rein) conducted a search and destroy operation north of Highway 1 (ZD095005) to (AV860000). Special emphasis was placed on the NUI GIOM-NUI TRION hill mass (AV8208) to (AV8305), NUI VINH PHONG (ZD1209) to (ZD1509) and NUI DAKER-NUI PHU KIA hill masses (AV8204) to (AV8400). This operation netted 45 lbs. of TNT found in one of many caves discovered and produced strong evidence of a V.C. demolitions platoon in the area.
- 28 October -- Golf Company relieved Hotel Company on MLR in order that Hotel could plan for operation 347-65 which later was cancelled.
- 30-31 October -- Company "H" reacted as Regimental reserve company and was helilifted to 1st Battalion, 1st Marines TAOR for a sweep operation which netted negative results.

f. Fire Support and Fire Support Coordination.

(1) During Operation Red Snapper (Enc. 7) the Battalion FSCC proved its capabilities in the field in a mobile situation. The command element displaced by foot on two (2) occasions to new positions and the FSCC composed of Artillery, Naval gunfire and Air Liaison Team proved to be effective and flexible throughout the operation.

g. Logistics.

(1) Supply

(a) Normal supply function operated by supply point distribution by allowing each company one (1) 6X6 truck per day to perform its own supply function.

(b) Operation Red Snapper supported by unit distribution in all cases utilizing UH-34 helicopters to perform resupply.

22-25 October - One TAC Party from 3d Battalion, 4th Marines was attached to Golf Company, one TAC Party from 2d Battalion, 3d Marines attached to Foxtrot Company and one TAC Party in CP group of 2/3 were in support of 2d Battalion, 3d Marines search and destroy operations when deployed 20 miles north of Da Nang (Encl 6). Close Air Support utilized for motor march cover only. Other air support included airborne A0 for reconnaissance, helicopters for med-evacs, resupplies and administrative runs. All other air requirements during month were used for normal resupply of front line positions and OP's.

1. Civil Affairs.

2 October - Otto Fuerbringer, the Editor in Chief of Time Magazine, visited the Le My Medical Center, the refugee home, and the Le My school.

Dr. KAAK, the Assistant Battalion Surgeon, and a corpsman left for Saigon with a small girl by the name of Thiet from the Quan Nam hamlet of Hoa Lac. The girl had an operation to correct a cleft lip condition.

6 October - The Da Phouc Market of Hoa Khanh Village was dedicated by LtCol CARMENT at 1100. The market is located opposite the 2d Battalion, 3d Marines Command Post and provides excellent barbering and laundry service as well as a place for off-duty personnel to relax. The prices for refreshments were derived by polling the vendors and by deliberation with the village chief. 7th Engineer Battalion provided a bulldozer to clear the land on which the market is located. Present at the dedication were Sergeant Major CARMENT, Battalion Sergeant Major, Captain GUGGINO, Battalion Civil Affairs Officer, and Captain HOL, the Hoa Vang District Chief.

8 October - Members of the first squad of the 1st platoon of Echo Company bought six playsuits for some children from the Quan Nam hamlet of Hoa Lac.

9 October - LtGen KRULAK, MajGen WALT, BGen MOCUTCHEON, and Major KEEVER visited the village of Hoa Vinh. They were met by the Regimental and Battalion Commander and escorted to the school in Hoa Vinh (coord 895800) where they briefed on the battalion's civil affairs program. The Battalion Civil Affairs Officer briefed on civil affairs in general; the Battalion Surgeon covered the medical aid program; the Assistant Battalion Civil Affairs Officer covered the education program; and the Battalion Civil Affairs NCO briefed on the rice harvesting operations.

10 October - Dr. ZELKO, the Battalion Surgeon left for Saigon with a mother and her two children who are from the Quan Nam Hamlet of Hoa Lac (coord 912818). The smaller of the two children is being breast fed and could not be separated from the mother. The other child was taken to the hospital to have the last of a series of operations to correct a scar on his face caused by a machete.

The Marines of the battalion gave church pews to the Catholic Church at the Hoa Khanh New Life Hamlet, (oord 956783).

- 13 October - The head of the youth movement of Japan toured the Le My area. Included in the tour were the Le My Medical Center, the school, and the refugee home. He was given a RVN flag and basket by the children of the village. Mr. Nam, the Village Chief of Hoa Thanh, had a dinner at the HI House (oord 908782). The Battalion Commander, the Battalion Executive Officer, the Battalion Sergeant Major, Staff Officers, and a representative from each company were present.
- 14 October - Captain GUGGINO, the Battalion Civil Affairs Officer, arranged to have sick call held twice weekly in Hoa Minh Village (oord 846779). Two girls from the village are presently in training at the Le My Medical Center, and they will be able to render first aid to the villagers upon completion of their training.
- 17 October - An I Corps Psychological Warfare Audio Team operated in Hoa Thanh Village (899784). The Battalion Civil Affairs Officer, who was present, stated that the team was well accepted and had a favorable effect on the villagers. A Medical corpsman from "F" Company treated 14 women and 51 children for minor ailments at Tung Son Hamlet (oord 893781). Vitamins were given to all the people present at the sick call, and penicillin shots were given to 28 people. The Corpsman noted that the largest problems he noted were disentary, hardened wax in children's ears, and the lack of followup treatment. On the other hand he noted that more children had been washed, and personal hygiene as a whole was improving.
- 20 October - General WESTMORELAND, accompanied by Major General WALT, visited the Le My area. They visited the school, the refugee center, the medical center, the market, and the medical center and were briefed on the battalion's civil affairs program by battalion representatives.
- 22 October - Seven members of the Armed Forces House Sub-Committee visited the Le My area. They toured the various civil affairs projects and met the Village Chief of Hoa Thanh and the Village Chief of Hoa Lac.
- 25 October - Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts, Senator Tidings of Maryland accompanied by two congressmen from California and Iowa and Major General WALT visited the village of Hoa Vinh. At the schoolhouse the visitors were briefed on the various aspects
