NARRATIVE SUMMARY

1. GENERAL OVERALL VIEW OF ALL ACTIVITIES. During the period of 1-13 August, the Battalion operated from the Cam Lo District Headquarters and stable positions to the north. From 14-31 August, the Battalion operated from Elliot Combat Base and 8 company-size search and clear operations were conducted. The Battalion continued to emphasize night movement, logistic self-sufficiency, minimum dependence on helicopter support, and prolonged small unit patrols and ambushes. Development and improvement of the fixed positions as well as mine sweeps of Route #9 and Route #561 continued to demand a large part of the Battalion's effort.

Enemy contact was generally of small scale and brief in duration. There was emphasis on close air support, TPQ's, and Beacon strikes throughout the month. Ambushes during this reporting period were very successful. Mortar attacks were minimal throughout the reporting month.

The Battalion S-5 worked throughout the month with local civilians with Med CAPs in conjunction with RVN authorities.

2. COMMAND RELATIONS.
