SECTION VLOGISTICSI. GENERAL:

a. There were no major logistical problems encountered during this reporting period. One battalion (-) size operation was conducted and the units in the field were resupplied via helicopters through LSA.

b. The Company at the mouth of the Cua Viet continued to be resupplied by ICU boats. The reinforced platoon at the Cam Lo Bridge was resupplied by motor convoy.

c. Some trouble was encountered in staging the battalion's gear for the move to Okinawa. The big problem was a lack of forklifts, as many of those available were inoperative. However, excellent support from "A" Company, 3d Shore Party Battalion enabled this unit to load efficiently.

II. Supply:

a. Supply support continued to be satisfactory during this period. No major problems were encountered. BA 386's were the only critically short item which affected the battalion's combat readiness.

III. Transportation:

a. Part shortage for the M274A1 (mule) and M422A1 (mite) have hampered the readiness of this unit's organic motor transport. Vehicles sent for 3d Echelon Maintenance have been lost to this unit for upwards of 3 months.

b. Motor transport support from 9th Motors for tactical and "housekeeping" requirements continued to be sufficient.

IV. Miscellaneous:

a. None

PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the period 5-11 April 1967, the Battalion was enroute from RVN to Okinawa. The period 11-30 April 1967 the Battalion conducted rehabilitation and training on Okinawa.

1. Training:

The Battalion conducted training at each unit level within the Battalion with emphasis placed on unit tactics and field work. Each Company within the Battalion attended Counter Guerrilla Warfare School, Demolition/Landmine Warfare School, Jungle Lane Trapline and one (1) Company received Submarine Raid training. In addition, 109 NCO's attended NCO School, 1 NCO Basic Ammo Tech School, 5 Officers and 5 Enlisted attended Embarkation School, 4 Basic Infantry Weapons Repair School, 14 Vietnamese Language School, 56 Field Wire School and 38 Field Radio School.

The Battalion continued rehabilitation of equipment.

2. Personnel:

a. Number of replacements received: 14 Officers - 282 Enlisted -

1 Enlisted USN.

b. Number of personnel rotated. 0 Officers - 0 Enlisted.

c. Personnel accounting continues to remain satisfactory.

d. Promotions: 1 Corporal - 6 Lance Corporals.

e. Postal: Postal Service continues to remain satisfactory.

3. Command Relations:

a. 3d Battalion, 4th Marines opcon to CTG 79.2. Command less opcon RLT-26.

4. Logistics:a. General:

(1) No major logistical problems were encountered during this reporting period. The move of the Battalion from the Republic of Vietnam to Okinawa was effected smoothly, largely due to the tremendous support received from "A" Company, Third Shore Party Battalion and 9th Motor Transport Battalion in transporting and staging equipment and supplies.

[REDACTED]

(2) Movement was made from the Dong Ha loading ramp to allotted shipping via LCM and LCU boats.

(3) On Okinawa the movement of troops and supplies from White Beach to Camp Schwab was effected smoothly.

b. Supply.

(1) Overall supply support on Okinawa has been excellent. Third and Fourth Echelon maintenance support has been particularly praise worthy. Critical items at the present time are limited to 782 gear and handsets for the AF/HRC-25 radio. Current shortages of combat essential equipment include 1 mite, 2 mules, 2 106 recoilless rifles, and 5 M60 machine guns.

c. Transportation:

(1) Upon arrival on Okinawa motor transport support was outstanding. The Battalion encountered some trouble in cleaning the organic motor transport vehicles before sending them to 3rd FSR because of inadequate steam cleaning equipment.

(2) Maintenance support on the 3rd and 4th echelon level has been satisfactory. However, a lack of parts still hampers second echelon maintenance efforts on the Battalion's organic motor vehicles.

(3) One problem encountered has been a lack of small vehicles needed to meet training requirements and to make necessary visitation trips to the brig and to the hospital. Truck support for hauling cargo and supplies has been sufficient.

5. Intelligence:

a. The Battalion intelligence Officer received frequent and timely briefings on the enemy situation in RVN from G-2, 9th MAB.

PART III

SEQUENTIAL LISTING OF SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

1. Sequence of Events:

a. On 5 April 1967, BLT 3/4 boarded ships for movement to Okinawa. Chop from Third Marine Division to CTF 79 and Command less opcon to 9th MAB.

b. On 11 April 1967, BLT 3/4 arrived White Beach, Okinawa and debarked for Camp Schwab, Okinawa. BLT 3/4 dissolved. Chop to CTG 79.2 Command less opcon to RLT-26.

c. On 20 and 21 April 1967, 9th Marine Amphibious Brigade conducted an Administration and Material Inspection of the Battalion.

d. On 24 and 25 April 1967, the Battalion was issued the M-16 Rifle.
