2. Commanders Narrative Summary of Significant Events.

    a. During the period of this report this Regiment concentrated on protection of the rice harvest and Vietnamese people within our tactical Area of Responsibility(tab 1). Battalion and Company sized operations were conducted both in and out of the Tactical Area of Responsibility. All organizations maintained heavy patrolling, ambushing and search and destroy missions through the period.

b. On or about 10 October 1966, the First Marine Division moved its Command Post to Da Nang(1). Task Force X-Ray was activated as Chu Lai Tactical Area of Responsibility Coordinator(2). Certain members of this command were assigned temporary duty with that staff.

c. Operational control of the First and Third Battalions was chopped on 9 October to the Seventh Marine Regiment(3). This Regiment Headquarters continued to operate at its present location as an administrative, legistrcal and informational headquarters.

3. Detailed Description of Significant Events.

a. Personnel. The Regiment experienced a turnover of approximately 622 men during the month. 102 persons were rotated to continental limits of the United States, 10 were reassigned to other Division units, and 510 replacements were received. The average Battalion strength was 32 Marine Officers and 1051 Marines Enlisted.

b. Administration

(1) A total of 273 R&R quotas, out of country, were assigned to units of the Regiment during the month. The cities in use were Hong Kong, Okinawa, Bangkok, Tokyo, Taipei, Manila, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur and Hawaii.

(2) The institution of a weekly, mobile post exchange service to the Battalions was the highlight of our service to these Battalions this past month.

(3) We are planning for expansion of the Postal facility prior to the Christmas mail influx. An enlarged Post Office will permit more prompt and efficient service for the increased volume of mail and it will protect the important mail from the monsoon rains.

(4) The Commanding Officer was assigned as Chief of Staff for Task Force X-Ray. Six other officers and 38 enlisted were also given temporary duty with that staff. No serious problems have been encountered, the flow of business was not interfered with and adjustment was quick to the new enviornment.

c. Intelligence. The Intelligence Section carried out its normal functions of collecting, processing and dessemination, members of this section were assigned temporary duty with Task Force X-Ray. Other members remained with the 5th Marine Regimental Headquarters (Rear) and continued to function as that headquarters intelligence section. This sectioncontinued to collect, process and desseminate to the various units with the Command Post Complex.

A counter mortar plan was developed for the defense of the Headquarters complex during the month and employed on one occasion when an outpost was attacked by a small unit of Viet Cong. The Regimental Fire Support Section was assigned to other organizations when this headquarters became an administrative, logistical and informational Command Post. The Direct Fire Support coordination Center for the Regimental Headquarters is located in the 3rd Battalion's Command Post.

(1) Logistics. During the month of October many logistical functions were performed. Company D of the 9th Engineer Battalion began a major road rebuilding project on our much damaged main service road. Weather has caused the road to become a quagmire of mud. In about 10 days the Company moved roughly 5,000,000 cubic yards of sand improving the road to an acceptable standard.

A continuing effort of preparation for monsoon season saw the completion of covers over bunkers, and the repair of and construction of new drainage ditches. 500 feet of additional board walk was finished.

Supply has made outstanding progress in its project for protection of outdoor stored supplies from the elements. No material loss has been sustained to date despite extensive rain. Motor Transport has intensified their preventative Maintenance program due to mud and water conditions. 50% of the vehicles required brake shoe replacements weekly.

Both physical appearance and sanitation were vastly improved at the mess hall during the month. New tables were errected, a pot cleaning building was constructed and a new protected, screened area put up for trash and garbage.

(j) Air Defense. Nothing significant to report.

(k) Combat Air Support. See enclosures 3 and 5.

(1) 14,597 medical treatments were administered by units of the Regiment.

(2) Operation Golden Fleece, tab 1. was conducted with great success and few incidents of any type were reported.

(3) Civic action supplies were distributed in large quantities. Such items as paint, wheat, clothing, salt, soap, garden kits, and various types of school kits were distributed.

(4) A preventative medicine campaign was initiated in Long Phu(1) in response to an outbreak of Plague in the Hamlet.

(5) Representatives from the Regiment attended a Psychological Warfare Conference at III MAF headquarters in DaNang.

(m) Nuclear Biological and Chemical or other special types of wafare.

Nothing significant to report. See enclosure 3 and 5 for Battalion PsyWar.
