PART II
NARRATIVE SUMMARY

7th Separate Bulk Fuel Company continued normal issue of Class III in the Danang TAOR in support of marine units. Support for the Republic of Korea Marine Corps continued. All administrative and supply records and publications were destroyed by fire. The package issues were temporarily suspended due to duds and debris from the ammunition dump explosion. The actual quantities of Class III handled during the month of April are unknown at this time due to destruction of records, however there was no significant increase or decrease in receipts and issues.
