NARRATIVE SUMMARY

General: The 3d Battalion, 7th Marines continued operating in their new Tactical Area of Responsibility (TAOR) during July 1969. Co I manned Hill 65 and had responsibility for patrolling the immediate area and for a distance approximately five kilometers west. In connection with this Co I worked closely with Regional Force Co 779. Co K returned to operational control of the 3d Battalion on 15 July and was assigned an area of operation immediately to the west of Co I. Co K operated in conjunction with Regional Force Co 117. Co L was tasked with providing one platoon as a Battalion reserve to react anywhere in the TAOR; to patrol northwest and southeast of Hill 37; and to be prepared to conduct company size operations as directed. Co L was employed twice in connection with opening, and providing security for sections of Route 4. Co M manned Golden Gate Bridge, patrolled the area surrounding Hill 55, and the Chau Son and Cam Van Villages. Operations in the Chau Sons were done in coordination with Regional Force Company 467 and an RD Cadre.

Specific: Snipers with Co I at 1500 on 4 July shot and killed an NVA soldier in green utilities at AT864562.

At 1905 the same day four NVA soldiers with heavy packs and rifles were observed by personnel in the tower on Hill 37. The enemy were moving along a ridge from west to east at AT882627. A 105mm artillery fire mission was called with good coverage of the target.

On 5 July at 0610 Co I snipers located with a squad ambush observed one VC heading toward a treeline at AT873556 and fired one shot killing him.

Hill 37 received two incoming 122mm rockets at 1805 on 7 July. Both impacted outside of wire slightly wounding two Vietnamese civilians. Fired 105mm artillery mission on possible launching sites.

At 0630 on 8 July sniper team with Co I patrol spotted one VC with rifle at AT879553 and fired one round killing the enemy guerrilla.

Tower on Hill 37 at 1930 on 8 July observed 25 NVA soldiers with packs and rifles moving west at AT876625. Called 105mm artillery fire mission with outstanding target coverage.

On 10 July the Battalion participated in an operation to open Route 4 through the TAOR to permit a convoy carrying food and other supplies to move from Dien Ban to Dai Loc. This was a significant event since the road had not been safe for travel during the previous five years.

(3) In addition to formal schools attended, this Battalion requested and received contact teams for instruction in the following subjects:

(a) Mines and Booby Traps on 10 July and 28 July 1969 with a total attendance of 65 Marines and 5 Navy Corpsman.

(b) No other formal schooling was conducted on the battalion level due to operational commitments.

i. Logistics, Equipment and Supply

(1) Logistics

(a) The laundry unit remains inoperable.

(b) One Engineer Assistance request was submitted to clean mess hall drains by 1st Battalion, 7th Marines and turned over to this Battalion.

(2) Equipment and Supply. Overall, supply support remains good. Repair parts for most Motor Transport vehicles, particularly the M274A2, and many communication replacement items or spare parts are extremely hard to obtain and thus cause excessive deadline time for these items of equipment. However, it is not considered critical at this time.

j. Civil Affairs

(1) Med Caps/Dent Caps. During the month of July, the battalion Medcaps Team treated 511 people for minor illnesses and injuries, while the Dent Cap Team treated 23 people.

(2) Projects. None, due to recent movement to the new AO.

UNCLASSIFIED

(3) Commodities Distributed. This month the battalion distributed 360 bar of soap while on Medcaps.

(4) Serious Incidents. None

k. Psychological Efforts

(1) Air Drops. This month the battalion requested 26 air drops: seven were executed, one was cancelled, and 18 drops are waiting confirmation. Themes used were Chieu Hoi, Weapon Rewards and PRO-GVN.

(2) Hand Distribution. This month the battalion distributed 540 Ban Tin Newspaper (PRO-GVN), 394 Weapon Rewards, 250 Rpt VC Cadre and 118 Safety.

(3) HB Team. This month the battalion utilized the GB Team once on 3 July 1969.

(4) HE Team. The battalion requested the HE Team twice but was utilized once in which two movies were shown at the First Church of Christ with an attendance of 80 people.

l. Communications

(1) Communications for the month of July were satisfactory in general. Radio communications were hampered throughout the month by strong overrides on several of our assigned frequencies. This problem was partially solved by trading frequencies with Regiment or Division.

(2) On 16 July a team from the Division Communication-Electronic Office held an inspection on the Communication Platoon and found it satisfactory.

(3) On 21 July the Communication platoon finished displacing to Hill 37. Extensive work has been done on the existing wire system and improvement in the service is increasing.

m. Chaplain. The Battalion Chaplain performed the following in support of the Battalion:

(1) Sunday Services were conducted by the Battalion Chaplain on 14 occasions. Attendance: 227. Communicants: 139.

(2) Weekday Services were conducted on two occasions with 125 in attendance and 74 Communicants.

(3) One Memorial Service was held for the Battalion at the Company level with 150 in attendance.
