PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

1.(S) During the month of November, BLT 2/9 continued to prepare for deployment with SLF ALFA. Supporting units were incorporated as much as possible into the battalion training program and live fire exercises. Most of the supporting units were relocated to Camp Schwab as well, and placed under the administrative control of H&S Company.

2.(S) The battalion continued Phase II training the first two weeks of November, completing live firing of all company and battalion organic weapons. Phase II training was completed on 15 November and the BLT concentrated on amphibious training from then until 30 November.

3.(S) A large turnover of personnel took place near the end of the month, preventing many of the new acquisitions from taking advantage of the specialized training.

4.(S) The equipment status of the BLT improved greatly in all areas and by the end of the month the command was fully ready logistically.

PART IIISEQUENTIAL LISTING OF SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

1.(C) Training. In addition to normal GMS classroom instructions and Camp Duty, the BLT concentrated on live firing of weapons and specialized training for deployment.

a. During the first week of November, "G" and "H" Companies each had a day of live firing for all their weapons. The 106mm Recoilless Rifle Platoon also had a separate day of live firing. 2nd Platoon, "C" Company, 3rd Engrs gave classes to each company in demolitions, minelaying, and mine detection and gave a day of specialized training to the rocket sections of each company. Also, thirty personnel from the battalion attended guerilla training at Camp Hardy with the Army Special Forces. Ninety-nine personnel completed rifle qualification with 44 firing expert; 34, sharpshooter; and 21, marksman; for 100% qualification.

b. The second week of November was devoted to amphibious training and water survival. Classes in boat team organization, proper wearing of equipment, lashing and lowering of crew-served weapons, debarkation stations, shipboard life, and a dry net exercise were given at Camp Schwab to E,F,G,H,H&S Companies plus attachments from "E" Btry, LSU, SP, Tanks, Recon, and Engineers. Drown-proofing instruction was held for E,F,G,H, and H&S Companies. The 81mm Mortar Platoon had a live firing exercise on 13 November. The General Military Subjects Proficiency Test was administered to 746 personnel during the week with the following results: Pvt thru ICpl--350 passed, 350 failed; Cpl and Sgt--37 passed, 9 failed. The results showed improvement over similiar testing in September 1969.

c. From 17 to 21 November, Amtrac training was held for all the companies and attachments including "E" Btry, 2/12, Clr Plt, MT, and SP. Training included capabilities and limitations of Amtracs, safety procedures, land and surf driving and an amphibious assault. Live fire exercises were also held for "E" Btry, Clearing Platoon, MT Platoon, and Amtrac Platoon personnel throughout the week. The Helicopter Support Teams from Shore Party received training in their specialty with the Air Liaison Officer and Forward Air Controller. On 20 November, Operation Plan 120-(YR) was published.

d. The last week of November was devoted to pre-embarkation matters for the most part. The 68 man Advance Party for BLT 2/9 departed for Subic Bay on 25 November. Two days were set aside for personnel going afloat to zero their individual weapons and the Forward Air Controller conducted training for his personnel on 26 November utilizing an OV-10.

e. Throughout the month, physical training was stressed with frequent conditioning hikes and daily physical training periods. "H" Company administered the Physical Fitness Test with 90% qualifying.

2.(U) Education. Group Study MCI courses were requested and received for the period afloat. Formal schools attended were: NCO School--9, Career Planning--3, Basic Infantry Weapons--2, Embarkation School--3.

3.(U) Special Events. On 7 November, "H" Company provided the color company at MCAS, Futema, for the arrival of the advance elements of Headquarters, 3rd Marine Division and CG, 3rd Marine Division, Major General W. K. JONES. On 10 November, the battalion participated in a Regimental Marine Corps Birthday Ceremony with the Assistant 3rd Marine Division Commander, BrigGen CARNEY in attendance. From 12 November through 22 November, Command Inspections were held of all BLT supporting units by the BLT Commander and inspecting teams. On 25 November, the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps, General L. W. WALT, visited Camp Schwab to speak to the men of BLT 2/9 and witness training. On 28 November, an Appointment and Relief Ceremony was held for outgoing BLT Sgt Major, Sgt Major G. D. MILLS, and incoming BLT Sgt Major, First Sgt E. E. MUELLER, with Assistant Division Commander, 3rd Marine Division in attendance.

4.(S) Equipment

a. The month of November for the battalion was largely devoted to preparation for deployment as Battalion Landing Team 2/9. The supply section, working in conjunction with the 9th MAB Supply Officer, I MEF Supply Officer and 3rd Marine Division Logistics personnel, established procedures for picking up equipment from other 3rd Marine Division units. In addition, procedures were promulgated for the invoicing of equipment from attached units to BLT 2/9. The fill rate of requisitions during November was unsatisfactory, but most of the equipment needed was acquired from other sources in the Division. Most of the equipment turned into 3rd FSR for repair was returned in time for embarkation.

b. At the end of the month, BLT shortages of major items of Combat Essential Equipment were as follows:

COMM-ELECT	AUTH	O/H	O/R	REPAIR	ON ORDER

7.(C) Intelligence. During the month of November, the S-2 implemented several new procedures to support the BLT more effectively. The most significant of these was a system for auditing Service Record Books for the ENTNAC entries.

During this period, the S-2 Scouts were given training on the basic subjects required in the performance of their duties. These subjects included handling of POW's, documents and material, collection and reporting of intelligence information, Scouts jobs, map reading and photo reading.

On 16 November, a Staff Sergeant, 0239, reported aboard and filled the billet of S-2 Chief.

On 26 November, the battalion S-2 Officer and S-2 Chief presented a classified briefing for all BLT Officers. The briefing encompassed eight different countries and their current political/military situations.

6.(C) Communications/Electronics

a. General. During the month of November, the Communications Platoon continued to provide Communications support to the Battalion. Liaison with the CEO office of I MEF was established for coordination in planning for the up-coming deployment of BLT 2/9. Equipment status at the time had improved as provisions had been made by CEO I MEF to obtain needed equipment from on-island assets. A second echelon maintenance program began for the attached units and a COMEX was held on the 20th of November with I MEF CEO, LtCol DEEM, and Assistant I MEF CEO, Major SCHUMAN, attending. Near the end of the month, key rank and MOS shortages were filled in the platoon. During the last few days of the month, emphasis was placed on embarkation. The message center boarded the USS Tripoli LPH-10 on 28 November to establish a troop message center.
