PART IIINARRATIVE SUMMARY1 March

The action which evolved from the activity of recon patrol PERSPECTIVE II continued in the area north northeast of Camp CARROLL. The battalion had operational control of Battery A-1/40, Battery B-1/12, and Battery K-4/12 and was reinforced by Battery M-4/12 in the operational area supporting elements of 3/3, 2/3, 1/9, and 3/4. From 0001 to 0200 Battery A-1/40 fired 19 observed missions for L-3/4, E-2/3, I-3/3 and 12th Marines AO. From 0001 to 0700 Battery B-1/12 fired 17 unobserved and 8 observed missions in the operational area in support of 3d Marines 24, 3/3, 2/3 and 3/4. During this period the battalion was reinforced by Battery M-4/12 on 3 observed missions. From 0100 to 1040 Battery B-1/12 fired 7, Battery A-1/40 fired 4, and Battery M-4/12 fired 5 unobserved missions on enemy positions, relayed through 3d Marines 24 from the operational units. At 1118 Battery B-1/12 fired a mission on enemy troops in the open for the 12th Marines AO at (YD 101639) resulting in 100% target coverage; 10 KIA (conf). From 1200 to 2000 Battery B-1/12 fired 7 missions, Battery A-1/40 fired 9 missions, Battery M-4/12 fired 3 missions, and Battery K-4/12 fired 5 missions as prep fires for the operational units. At 1950 Battery B-1/40 fired a saturation mission for 3d Marines 24 in the YD 0357 area on suspected enemy force of approximately 60 men. From 2000 to 2400 Battery B-1/12 fired 8 missions, Battery A-1/40 fired 6 missions and Battery M-4/12 fired 4 missions as defensive protective fires on known and suspected enemy positions. The operational units continued to maintain contact throughout the night and the battalion kept up its continual support.

2 March

All activity continued to be centered in the area northwest of Camp CARROLL as units in that area continued to engage the enemy, receiving small arms automatic weapon fire and mortar attacks throughout the day. At 0138 Battery K-4/12 fired a mission on a suspected mortar position (YD 118649) in support of L-3/3 resulting in outstanding effect on target. At 0200 Battery B-1/12, Battery B-1/40, and Battery M-4/12 each fired one area saturation mission called by 3d Marines 24. From 0200 to 0700 Battery B-1/12 fired 4 missions and Battery A-1/40 fired 3 missions on enemy movement in the 2/3 and 3/4 area. At 0755 Battery A-1/40 and Battery M-4/12 fired counter mortar fire for 1/9 who were receiving incoming from vicinity YD 065650. From 0800 to 1300 Battery B-1/12 fired 9 missions and Battery A-1/40 fired 2 missions as recons by fire on suspected and known enemy locations and mortar positions. From 1424 to 1450 Battery A-1/40 fired 2 missions for the 12th Marines AO (YD 038645) on enemy in the open resulting in 10 KIA (conf) and 3 KIA (prob). The units in the operational

4. SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

On 2 March Battery A-1/40 replaced Battery B-1/40 in position at THOM SOM LAM. On 4 March Battery F-2/12 replaced Battery B-1/12 on the plateau, as that battery prepared to embark, in conjunction with ELT 2/3 rotation out of country. On 5 March, the Battalion assumed tactical fire direction of the units under its operational control, releasing all technical fire direction to the individual units. Battery F-2/12 returned to DONG HA and was replaced by Battery B-1/40. On 7 March Camp CARROLL came under mortar attack and the Battalion expended over 5000 rounds in counter mortar fire throughout the attack. On 8 March Battery A-1/40 replaced Battery

~~UNCLASSIFIED~~
B-1/40 on Camp CARROLL as the former unit returned to its parent unit in DONG HA. On 9 March the Battalion FDC section assisted in, through survey the location of observation posts at key positions throughout the Camp CARROLL defense area. On 10 March Battery F-2/12 came under OpCon of 1/12 and took up a position in CAM LO at YD 133592, and the Battalion dropped OpCon of Battery K-4/12. At various times throughout the remainder of the month Battery F-2/12 moved between their CAM LO position and a northern position at YD 143615 in support of operations involving 3/3, 3/9, 1/9, 3/4, and 1/4. On 29 March Mortar Battery 3/12 relieved Mortar Battery 1/12 in position at BA LONG as that unit prepared for embarkation and out of country rotation.

5. LOGISTICS.

During the month the Battalion FDC/COC was furnished the materials and personnel for construction of a bunker. Construction was completed on 9 March and the Battalion was supplied with over 30,000 sandbags to finish improvements on all counter mortar defensive positions throughout the 1/12 area. A TD-18 was made available to the perimeter defense for the purpose of both improving the defensive positions and clearing fields of fire for a period of 2 days.

6. ORDNANCE

During the month the ordnance section inspected all howitzers and optical equipment in F-2/12. Discrepancies were noted and support was called for from FLSU to correct all of them. All repairs were completed and the effect was noted in the improved support from this battery.

7. MEDICAL

The general health of the battalion continues to be excellent. There were 136 patients treated at sick call and all were returned to duty. 168 immunizations were given during the month. There were 8 physicals given in preparation for mess duty assignments. There were 4 preventive medicine and sanitation inspections performed throughout the period with satisfactory findings for each of the.

8. MOTOR TRANSPORT

The vehicles in the battalion travelled a total of 13,941 miles during the month. There were 3 quarterlies, 1 annual and 20 other minor repairs done to vehicles during the month. The average deadline for the period was 15%.

9. WEATHER

Due to clearing weather, operational deployments picked up and the battalion doubled its volume of fires in support of these commitments. There was a noticeable increase in AO activity with a corresponding increase of live targets attacked through their coverage.

10. TRAINING

Two formal quotas for training were filled in conjunction with MUMS Supply School. There were two quotas for a regimental level generator mechanic school. There was 1 quota for a FMFPac Embarkation School filled during the reporting period. There was a continued effort made in on-the-job informal training conducted by the individual sections of each battery.

11. COMMUNICATIONS

a. Radio. During the month the battalion maintained five radio nets on a continuing basis. The Battalion Command Net was activated daily during the month on a continuing basis. The Division Convoy Control Net was activated 3 times during the month to cover rough riders throughout the AOR.

b. Wire. During the night of 6-7 March, a mortar attack temporarily shattered the battalion wire system. The lines were trouble shot immediately and communications were re-established in a minimum of time. The Battalion FDC was transferred on 7 March to a more secure position pending construction of a bunker and the wire system was transferred to this temporary position. Upon completion of the new FDC/COC Bunker, the entire wire system was again re-routed. The police of the wire was continued regularly throughout the remainder of the month.

c. Message Center. During the month the battalion message center processed 882 incoming messages and 29 outgoing messages for a total of 911.

d. Training. Cross training between radio operators and wiremen was conducted. New message center personnel received on-the-job training on message handling, processing and filing procedures.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR KEEPING JOURNAL

1. Heading:

a. Unit or Section:

- (1) Enter designation of unit if this is a unit journal for regiment, air group, or smaller unit.
- (2) Enter designation of section if this is a section journal maintained by a general staff section.

b. Place: Enter coordinates or name of locality.

c. From: Enter date, time, and time zone that journal is opened.

d. To: Enter date, time, and time zone that journal is closed.

2. Body:

a. Time In:

(1) Unit Journal. Enter time information is received within unit. In most instances this would be TOR at unit communication center.

(2) Section Journal. Enter time information is received within section.

b. Time Out:

(1) Unit Journal. Enter time outgoing information is delivered to addressee. In most instances this would be TOD by unit communication center.

(2) Section Journal. Enter time outgoing message is delivered to originator's communication center for transmittal, or time information is transmitted by releasing section.

c. Serial No.: Number each entry consecutively as information is received by keeper of journal.

d. DTG: Enter date/time group of radio message.

e. Incidents, Messages, Orders:

(1) Important incidents, messages and orders are recorded as they are made known.

(2) Although brief, entries must include all vital elements of information, such as what, where, when, how, and who.

(3) Original entries should not be altered, but should be supplemented or corrected by later entries when necessary.

(4) A synopsis of written or oral messages is entered in the journal, leaving the full account for the journal file and other supporting documents.

(5) Oral messages are reduced to writing and processed like written messages.

f. Action Taken: This column is used to indicate administrative action taken, such as, routing to cognizant unit staff officer(s), dissemination of pertinent information and/or filing of message. Some of the more common symbols used to indicate action taken are: "M", posted on situation map; "S", circulated to unit staff; "T", information disseminated to troops or subordinate units; "F", filed in journal file.

3. Ending:

a. Summary: A brief summary of major activities, with reasons underlying decisions, is entered in the journal at the close of each day. This is written in narrative form under the column entitled "Incidents, Messages, Orders."

b. Closing: Journals are closed daily or at the end of periods or phases prescribed by higher authority.

4. Journal File:

Journal file is considered a part of the journal. It contains messages, orders, records of conversation, and other documents supporting journal entries.
