5. INTELLIGENCE

a. Increased liaison was established with the S-2, 3rd Marines, resulting in the exchange of overlays, information, target lists, etc. Intelligence targets were fired upon throughout this period.

b. Aerial Observers have been available on a daily basis. They have been assigned targets and areas of suspected enemy positions to reconnoiter.

c. Daily briefings were presented to the battalion staff with increased emphasis on enemy locations and activities.

6. TRAINING

a. This battalion has initiated an intensive formal school training program commensurate with operational commitments. During October, personnel were assigned to or completed schools as indicated below:

School	Officer	Enlisted
Wheeled Vehicle Waterproofing		11
Artillery Survey		4

b. Training in general military subjects, familiarization firing of individual and crew-served weapons, and on-the-job training in all occupational fields is conducted on a continuous basis.

c. Group study fire direction courses were requested and received from the Artillery and Guided Missile School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. All personnel standing watches in the Battalion FDC will attend these group study courses taught by officers and SNCO's.

7. COMMUNICATIONS

a. Communications from this position is generally excellent with no insurmountable problems experienced during this period. Each firing battery was inspected in preparation for the division inspection next month.

b. The radio section constructed hot lockers, for the PRG-25's at the battalion antenna farm.

c. The wire section reconstructed the telecommunication system. Due to climatic conditions, telephones are now dried daily in the electronics maintenance shop hot locker. Permission was received to cut 30 trees for use as overhanging material.

d. The message center processed 797 incoming and 49 outgoing messages during October. A Communications Tactical Publication Library inspection was conducted in accordance with current directives.

8. LOGISTICS

a. The availability of Class IV items remains unchanged. Bunkers, bunker material, and sand bags are not available.

b. The below listed items are no longer in critically short supply:

Battery, 6TN	Electrolyte
Compass, magnetic	Oxygen
Lantern, electric

c. The lack of laundry facilities is a continuing problem. The FLC laundry platoon provides facilities for organizational property but not for personal clothing. This problem will be magnified with the onset of the monsoon season which will preclude drying clothing outdoors. No indoor drying facilities are available other than in troop billets.

9. SUPPLY

a. The overall supply situation continues to be satisfactory. Items that are considered critical are being received as the result of aggressive follow-up action. However, ordnance repair parts considered critical, are not being received. A Special Commanders Assistance Request has been forwarded to Commanding General, Third Marine Division, concerning these critical ordnance items.

b. October requisition break-down is as follows:

PRIORITY	SUBMITTED	COMPLETED
02	13	18
05	26	15
12	335	84
17	196	8

10. MEDICAL

a. Aid station of this battalion treated 316 personnel, gave 231 immunizations, and conducted four sanitation and preventive medicine inspections. There is no evidence of food or water borne disease or illness.

b. Two KIA's were sustained during this period and two personnel were evacuated with malaria.

c. Seven MEDCAPS were held at the villages of Hung Phu I and II, during which 1090 indigenous patients were treated.

11. ORDNANCE

a. This battalion received excellent combat service support during October. Two 105mm howitzer tubes became worn out in service during this period and were replaced by FLSU #1 within one week. Additionally, 12th Marines arranged for Heavy Army Transport (tractor trailers) to assist this battalion in stockpiling ammunition during the election period when traffic was minimized on Route #9. This type support continues to enhance the combat effectiveness of the battalion.

b. The non-availability of PD fuzes necessitates the use of VT and MTSQ fuzes for PD action.

12. MOTOR TRANSPORT

a. A maintenance shop consisting of two stalls was constructed. This will permit continuity of the maintenance program during the monsoon season. Annual and quarterly maintenance and second echelon repairs were completed on 75 vehicles. Three vehicles were forwarded to FLC for third and fourth echelon repairs.

b. Driver training instruction was conducted and 13 military licenses were subsequently issued. Vehicles travelled 16,748 miles during October, therefore, the requirement for driver training is continuous.

13. CIVIC ACTION

a. A number of items have been procured for the hamlets of Hung Phu I and Hung Phu II. Clothing was distributed in Hung Phu I. Construction material for the community center in Hung Phu II has been obtained with the exception of cement. The cement will be procured when the Quang Tri warehouse opens in November. A sewing machine for each hamlet will be presented in November with appropriate ceremony.

14. PERSONAL RESPONSE

a. The Personal Response Officer and the senior battalion medical representative attended the Division Personal Response Course. This course has helped the Personal Response Officer perform his mission of education. The information from this school will be passed on to the battalion staff and to newly arrived Marines.

b. Marines continue to accompany the MEDCAP teams, when possible, in order to better understand the Vietnamese people.
