5. INTELLIGENCE

a. Continuous liaison was maintained with the Cam Lo Advisor resulting in the visual acquisition of targets and information of intelligence value.

b. In coordination with the S-3, a new counterfire program was developed. Known and suspected enemy mortar, rocket, and artillery locations were determined from intelligence sources and map spot. Each platoon was assigned a counterfire target thus increasing the counterbattery coverage for this battalion and incorporating the capability to fire on all such targets simultaneously.

c. A school was conducted for the Crater Analysis Teams in each battery.

d. Daily intelligence and weather briefings were conducted for battery commanders and the battalion staff. Information for these briefings was compiled from situation reports, intelligence reports, other S-2 officers, and various other sources throughout this area.

6. TRAINING

a. Training in general military subjects, familiarization firing of individual and crew-served weapons, and on-the-job training in all occupational fields is conducted continuously.

b. Group study courses on Radio Telephone Procedure and Vehicle, Road and Bridge Classification were requisitioned and received from the Artillery and Guided Missile School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. These courses were issued to the communications and motor transport section, respectively.

c. During December, personnel were assigned to or completed schools as indicated below:

	OFFICERS	ENLISTED
SNCO Leadership Indoctrination		1
Personal Response		1
Civic Action Orientation	1
Ammunition Technician		2
NCO leadership		3

d. In addition to the above listed formal schools, a battalion NCO school was conducted for a period of three days and was attended by 127 corporals and sergeants; an FO school was conducted for eight observers manning the Camp Carroll observation posts; a school on the duties of the president, counsel, and members of special court martials was conducted by the Division Legal Section for all officers of the battalion.

e. The monthly troop indoctrination program for newly joined personnel was presented to 36 personnel by the battalion staff.

7. COMMUNICATIONS

a. During this period, new wire for telecommunications and electricity was installed due to the new construction and relocation of installations and quarters within the command post.

b. The daily regimental command net and the WAV time checks were changed to "as required" nets.

c. The electronics repair section repaired 20 items of communications equipment and processed 18 items for repair at ELSU.

d. The communications center processed 905 incoming and 91 outgoing messages during the month of December.

8. LOGISTICS

a. The new construction within the battalion is proceeding satisfactorily. The majority of the strongbacks and hardbacks have been erected and the messhall is rapidly approaching completion.

b. A mount out drill was conducted by all batteries and staff sections. Discrepancies noted are in the process of being corrected.

9. SUPPLY

a. The previous shortage of supply administration personnel has improved considerably during this period. Two sergeants, three corporals, and two lance corporals were assigned to the supply section.

b. All M16 rifles received have been issued. Rifles to complete the issue to all ADCON batteries have been requisitioned.

c. The battalion received and issued 12 M2 aiming circles during December.

d. December requisition status is as follows:

Priority	Submitted	Completed
02	32	7
05	38	15
12	422	172
17	43	53

10. MEDICAL

a. Aid stations of this battalion treated 329 personnel and administered 213 immunizations.

b. Three first aid classes were conducted during December. Newly joined personnel received an indoctrination lecture with emphasis on the dangers through illegal use of drugs and marijuana.

c. Four preventive medicine and sanitation inspections were conducted with no major discrepancies noted.

d. Eight MEDCAPS were conducted during which 853 indigenous personnel received medical treatment.

11. ORDNANCE

a. FLSU provided excellent ordnance repair support during December as evidenced by the fact that 16 major items of ordnance material were evacuated and repaired with an average down time of six days. All major ordnance items are currently operational.

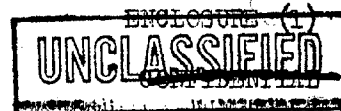

b. No ammunition or fuze problems were encountered during this period.

12. MOTOR TRANSPORT

a. The return of seven M-35 trucks from Khe Sanh and receipt of the new M-543A2C multi-fuel wrecker has considerably enhanced the motor transport capability of this battalion.

b. A tire shop was constructed in the motor pool which will provide shelter for repairing tires during inclement weather.

c. There were no traffic accidents involving vehicles of this battalion. This can be attributed, in part, to the active safe driving program which was initiated last month.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

UNCLASSIFIED

13. CIVIC ACTION

a. Operation Red Wagon continued into December with 18 red wagons presented to deserving children in the hamlets of Hung Phu I and Hung Phu II. The refugees of Hung Phu I presented the Civil affairs officer with a handmade pipe which is indicative of the progress being made with the people of the refugee hamlets. The wagons were presented by the battalion executive officer and the S-3 at informal ceremonies in each hamlet.

b. English classes were conducted and were attended by 67 adults and 58 children.

c. A dental health program was initiated in Hung Phu II. Ten children were each provided with a tooth brush, toothpaste, and mouth wash. Instruction was presented on the proper use of these items and as additional tooth brushes and toothpaste become available the program will be proportionally expanded.

d. A self-help program was initiated in Hung Phu II with the hiring of refugees to fill sand bags. Salad oil was used as reimbursement for this labor.

e. This battalion participated in planning and staging a Christmas party for 300 refugee children. Games were played and Santa Claus visited the children. The party was a total success, therefore, a similar party is planned for Tet.

14. PERSONAL RESPONSE

a. The S-5 attended the III MAF Personal Response School.

b. A total of 15 Marines accompanied Corpsmen on MEDCAPS for the purpose of observing and learning of the problems of the local refugee populace.
