PART II
NARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the month of February the Battalion remained in General Support of the 1st Marine Division. The Battalion supported no named operation during the month.

The Battalion retained operational and administrative control of Battery K, 4th Battalion, 13th Marines throughout the month. Battery K's mission remained General Support, with most of its fires being delivered on intelligence targets in the northern portion of the Division TAOR.

Battery M continued its mission of General Support, Reinforcing 2nd Battalion, 11th Marines. The Battery continued to answer calls for fire directly from reconnaissance units operating in the southern portion of the Division TAOR.

Battery K's mission remained Reinforcing, 3rd Battalion, 11th Marines throughout the month.

Battery L remained in General Support throughout the period. Much of Battery L's firing was in support of observation posts located in the central portion of the Division TAOR, resulting in 113 confirmed KIAs for the Battery.

During the month of February units of the Battalion fired a total of 2292 missions expending 20,700 rounds in support of the following units:

UNIT	MISSIONS	ROUNDS
1st Marines	26	414
5th Marines	23	336
7th Marines	100	1644
11th Marines	1177	12,709
26th Marines	919	5643
Recon	47	375

A Consolidated surveillance of the above fires yielded:

KIA's	141
Bunkers destroyed	2
Structures damaged	0
Structures destroyed	3
Secondary explosions	3

Surveillance of the TAOR by strategically located observation posts again accounted for the high number of KIA's even though enemy activity remained at a low level throughout the period, and the expected TET offensive did not materialize.

At 2400 on 1 February, Battery M's position at AN HOA Combat Base came under mortar attack. Nine 82mm mortar rounds impacted within the Battery position, causing slight damage to 3 vehicles and wounding 4 Marines of Battery M. Of the wounded, all resulting from shrapnel, 2 required MED-A-VAC, and 2 were treated in the position and returned to duty. The Battery Commander, Capt D. L. HERRING, has been recommended for the Bronze Star Medal for his actions during the mortar attack. Disregarding his own safety, he immediately moved to the area under attack, aiding the wounded Marines and positioning his men for an anticipated accompanying ground attack.

On 5 February the Battalion joined 4 sentry dog teams from the 3rd Military Police Battalion. The teams were joined for a period of approximately 30 days to assist in patrolling the perimeter of the Battalion CP during the high threat period accompanying the TET Holidays.

During the period 15 through 28 February, the Battalion assumed operational control of Company H, 2nd Battalion, 26th Marines. Company H moved to Hill 34, assuming the position vacated by 1st Force Reconnaissance Company, and assisted in the defense and security of Hill 34.

On 28 February Company H was relieved in its position by Company C, 1st Battalion, 5th Marines, who will remain on Hill 34, assisting in the defense of the Cantonment. Company C remains under the operational control of their parent Battalion which will assume responsibility for the Southern Sector Defense Command in the near future.

i. Training.

(1) Normal GMS and MOS training was conducted as operational commissions allowed.

(2) The Operations Section conducted two 1 week FADAC operators courses during the month, training 8 operators of this and other artillery units.

(3) On 24 February a 2 hour class on artillery procedure was presented to the Staff NCOs and Officers of the 3rd Military Police Battalion.

j. Logistics, Equipment and Supply.

(1) During this period the deadline for M109 Howitzers remained at a satisfactory level due to the outstanding performance of maintenance crews. Due to weather conditions and the total rounds fired from each weapon, we are now having and contemplating a much greater turnover of major M109 components. Since the usage data at this Battalion's supply level and the turnover at FLC's direct exchange warehouse do not show the necessary hits on these items, we are now experiencing a higher and longer deadline posture on the M109.

(2) Twenty motor transport vehicles are presently deadlined for a rate of 15%. Of these twenty, six are deadlined at 3rd echelon facilities.

(3) Requisitions submitted since this Battalion has been in the Republic of Vietnam total 50,284. Of this number 31,748 have been filled.

(4) A Command Material Management Inspection of the 4th Battalion was conducted by the 1st Marine Division on 20 and 21 February. The results of the inspection were as follows:

- (a) Ordnance - Satisfactory with Minor Discrepancies
- (b) Engineer Equipment - Satisfactory
- (c) Embarkation - Satisfactory with Minor Discrepancies
- (d) Motor Transport - Satisfactory with Discrepancies
