PART II

NARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the month of December the Battalion continued to execute its assigned mission of defending the KHE SANH Combat Base, maintaining security of Route 9 in the assigned operating area, maintaining on a continuing basis a SPARROW HAWK platoon, and conducting extensive reconnaissance and combat operations throughout the assigned operating area. On 26 December the Battalion was relieved of the responsibility for the combat outposts on Hills 86E South and 86I by the 3d Battalion 26th Marines. The Battalion conducted a three company search and destroy operation north of the KHE SANH Combat Base during the period 28 - 31 December. In addition the Battalion conducted two company (-) size search and destroy operations, 77 night ambushes, 17 company size patrols, 28 platoon size patrols, 84 squad size patrols, and 360 listening posts during December.

HIGHLIGHTS

On Christmas day hot meals were heli-lifted to the combat outposts on Hills 86I South and 86I.

During December an inspection/survey contact team inspected the Battalions M16A1 rifles, resulting in the exchange of M16A1 rifles for improved models.

PART IIISEQUENTIAL LISTING OF SIGNIFICANT EVENTS1. Combat Missions Assigned

- a. Occupy and defend Hills 861 South and 861.
- b. Occupy and defend the radio relay site on Hill 950.
- c. Conduct extensive patrolling to detect and destroy enemy personnel infiltrating into and through the KHE SANH AO.
- d. Maintain one company as Regimental reserve. Designate one platoon as a SPARROW HAWK reaction force.
- e. Be prepared to execute contingency plans for the relief/reinforcement of LANG VEI, Combined Action Platoons O-1 and O-2 and the HUONG HOA District Headquarters at KHE SANH.
- f. Provide perimeter security and coordination for the defense of the KHE SANH Combat Base as directed.
- g. Be prepared to provide convoy security and other security forces as may be directed.
- h. Conduct search and destroy operations to interdict likely enemy routes of infiltration.

2. Significant operations conducted

- a. The Battalion continued its participation in Operation SCOTLAND throughout the month of December.
- b. At 020300H December Company B (-)(Rein) initiated a three day search and destroy operation to investigate and disrupt reported enemy activity north of KHE SANH Combat Base. The previous day a helicopter moving the Battalion Command Group into position received small arms fire as it approached the landing zone. Automatic weapons fire was returned and the incoming small arms fire ceased. No further contact was made.
- c. On 4 December a platoon from Company B received a total of 14 rounds of 82mm Mortar. No casualties were sustained. Suspected enemy positions were taken under fire by artillery and mortars with unknown results.
- d. At 150630H December, Company C (-)(Rein) initiated a search and destroy operation east of KHE SANH Combat Base to investigate a possible enemy anti-tank position and harbor site. The operation was terminated on 19 December with negative contact.

1550		38	061550	Fm: B - Spot Report at approximately 061030H. Forward Air control personnel who were engaged in rebuilding a bunker on the south side of the Landing Zone received three rounds of semi-automatic fire over their heads. Scout/Snipers heard the fire, but could not locate the position from which it came. The second squad of the second platoon of Bravo Company while moving through check point #4 spotted the enemy position and delivered five 40mm high explosive rounds in the vicinity of 772427. After taking the target under fire Bravo 2-2 reported taking approximately ten rounds of small arms fire from grid 770431. This enemy fire could have been from the original enemy position, but the actual location could not be determined. No enemy were seen during the incident.
				Seven rounds of 106mm rounds were delivered into the area in addition to 25 rounds of 50 cal. machine gun fire. Third platoon of Bravo Company moved into the EMEDIATE area in support of Bravo 2-2, Bravo 2-2 then moved into the enemy position area. There have been no results thus far in the search of the area. It is intended at present for Bravo 2-2 to continue its assigned mission and upon it's completion move back to check point #4. Subsequently Bravo 3 will move back to CP area, arriving by 1500 hours	S/F/R
