6. Operational Highlight. Seaworthy 99-3 & 4, on Mission 401/510, covered the lift of Andrew Charlie by Chatterbox 93-1, 2, 3, and 4. Although the zone had been propped by artillery and the two gunships' rockets, the zone still contained booby-traps, and Chatterbox 93-1 was damaged upon landing and was forced to shut down. The lift postponed, Seaworthy 99-4 returned to Quang Tri for an aircraft change due to faulty radios, while 99-3 remained on station to cover the downed crew and troops, and began coordination of the recovery team. Seaworthy 99-4 back on station, 99-3 returned to Vandgrift to refuel, and the insertion of Andrew Charlie was resumed, along with the insertion of the recovery team. The two Seaworthy helicopters expended ordnance on a nearby bunker complex spotted by Seaworthy 97-3, destroying one bunker and damaging another, with Seaworthy 98-5 controlling artillery on that area later in the day. Seaworthy 98-1 & 2, detached to Chu Lai, logged a total of 47.9 hours in three days in support of SAR operations between Marble Mountain and Quin Nhon.
